Sea-changes: Melville - Forster - Britten Hanna Rochlitz, 2012 E M Forster first encountered Billy Budd in 1926 Some twenty years later he embarked on a collaboration with Benjamin Britten and Eric Crozier adapting Melville's novella for the opera stage The libretto they produced poignantly reaffirms the Forsterian creed of salvation through personal relationships This study presents an extensive exploration of Forster's involvement in the interpretation transformation and re-creation of Melville's text It situates the story of the Handsome Sailor in the wider context of Forster's literary oeuvre his life and his life writings In detailed readings Billy Budd becomes a lens through which the themes patterns and leitmotifs of Forsterian thought and creative imagination are brought into focus A close re-examination of the libretto sketches serves to shed new light on the collaborative process in which Melville's story was changed to fit an archetypal array of plot and character types that is central to Forster's own storytelling British Authors and Texts C. L. Khatri, 2005 Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture Paige Reynolds, 2016-09-22 Modernist Afterlives in Irish Literature and Culture explores manifestations of the themes forms and practices of high modernism in Irish literature and culture produced subsequent to this influential movement The interdisciplinary collection reveals how Irish artists grapple with modernist legacies and forge new modes of expression for modern and contemporary culture Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper, 2016-02-15 In Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper examines a key moment in the development of the modern gay novel by analyzing four novels by German British and American writers Wilper studies how the texts are influenced by and respond and react to four schools of thought regarding male homosexuality in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The first is legal codes criminalizing sex acts between men and the religious doctrine that informs them The second is the ancient Greek erotic philosophy in which a revival of interest took place in the late nineteenth century The third is sexual science or sexology which offered various medical and psychological explanations for same sex desire and was employed variously to defend as well as to attempt to cure this perversion And fourth in the wake of the scandal caused by his trials and conviction for gross indecency Oscar Wilde became associated with a homosexual stereotype based on unmanly behavior Wilper analyzes the four novels Thomas Mann's Death in Venice E. M. Forster's Maurice Edward Prime Stevenson's Imre A Memorandum and John Henry Mackay's The Hustler in relation to these schools of thought and focuses on the exchange and cross cultural influence between linguistic and cultural contexts on the subject of love and desire between men Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean Yasser Elhariry, Isabelle Keller-Privat, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2025-07-15 Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean examines the embodied praxis of hospitality whether through the ritual modes of religious history the pages of literature the visual arts dystopian narratives of the future or the realpolitik of shelter and asylum It moves beyond dominant transit tropes of aporetic exchange in the lineage of Jacques Derrida The volume offers a fractal view of Mediterranean studies as inflected by the lived aesthetic and philosophical histories of hospitality This book brings together leading voices ranging from early career to established scholars across the social sciences and the humanities to argue for a distinct focus on the Mediterranean pre conditions and pre histories of hospitality To date there has been no interdisciplinary intervention that takes up hospitality as a starting point to critical thinking about Mediterranean studies as an expansive dynamic and ever evolving discipline Against the inescapable backdrop of necropolitics and catastrophe Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean offers a rich agentive alternative for Mediterranean worldmaking
