From Creation to Redemption Douglas Bayless,2024-07-08 God created man in his image In this book we study that image and come to understand why the first man created in the image of God could and did fall from holiness to the state of sin and spiritual death We explore how the resulting depravity infected the entire human race and what God has done to provide the antidote and make possible the restoration of the primal holiness that characterized the original creation Inherited depravity can be cured only by God creating a new heart to replace the fallen moral and spiritual condition of sin God dealt patiently with the human race through the rites of the law of Moses teaching us what sin is what its consequences are and what is its remedy The animal sacrifices God required of the Israelites under the Old Testament illustrated that remedy foreshadowing the atonement in Christ The shedding of the blood of Christ as pictured by the animal sacrifices is the only means by which sin and spiritual death are conquered and the new heart realized Gospel salvation is much more than just the forgiveness of sins it is the restoration of the holiness God intended for human lives the new heart It is the blood of Christ that made atonement for sin and it is the action of the Holy Spirit in the human heart that produces genuine sanctification and practical holiness The baptism of the Holy Spirit as a dispensational baptism is explored What happened on the Day of Pentecost and what happened to those who experienced the subsequent receiving of the Holy Spirit events in the book of Acts What did Jesus teach on the baptism of the Holy Spirit What is entire sanctification Are we yet carnal And what is temptation These are questions on which there are different viewpoints but yet have clear answers in the New Testament

Many scholars find the legal metaphor of an Oath of Innocence inappropriate though for different reasons Some liberal scholars opt for an aesthetic not a moral resolution of the question of evil in the world They find a sublime beauty in God s review of the animal and physical worlds Behemoth and Leviathan But that is all they find They find no suggestions of moral purpose in God s creation and control of evil Indeed they feel none could be forthcoming God is beyond good and evil so no moral resolution is possible Since no moral resolution is possible a legal metaphor such as a lawsuit dramatizing the moral question is inappropriate They interpret Job to understand that position And they interpret him to retract the lawsuit in its entirety This author feels such liberal scholars miss a moral resolution for five reasons a First they fail to give adequate weight to Satan s first speech in heaven setting out the moral solution b Second they misinterpret Job s struggle with God to be a request for a restoration of his former position rather than a request to know the reason behind evil in the world c Third they fail to appreciate the moral restrictions under which God has to operate God cannot reveal any moral answers directly without defeating his very purpose in the creation and control of evil As a result they miss the suggestions of moral purpose in God s two speeches and the inferences God would have Job draw d Fourth they fail to fully appreciate the legal dynamics of the enforcement mechanism of Job s Oath of Innocence In particular they fail to appreciate the distinction between causal responsibility and moral blameworthiness Thus they do not understand God s comments concerning vindication and condemnation in his first speech to Job And they do not understand Job s hesitation to proceed beyond his own vindication to a condemnation of God in Job s first speech to God Ultimately they fail to see Job s adjournment and continuation of his Oath of Innocence implied by the allusion to the story of Abraham and Sodom and Gomorrah in Job s final speech e Finally they fail to give full expression to God s ultimate judgement on Job Job and only Job spoke rightly about God In the face of such a judgement there is no room to deny the ultimate propriety of the moral and legal question as a way of framing man s encounter with God Some conservative scholars opt for a moral resolution of the question of evil in the world but their resolution is equally unsatisfying They interpret Job s so called excessive words and his Oath of Innocence to be sins of presumption Thus they would have Job retract his lawsuit in its entirety and repent morally for either his so called excessive words his raising of the lawsuit or both This author feels such conservative scholars miss a satisfactory moral resolution for three reasons a First they fail to understand the depth of Satan s challenge to God It is not merely that Job will curse God It is that God is wrong in his judgement on Job s goodness God missed sin in Job s life Such scholars think their moral resolution is possible because although Job sins Job does not actually curse God Their resolution actually makes Satan right in his challenge of God so that God should step down from his throne and destroy mankind b Second they fail to give proper weight to Job s blamelessness and integrity The raising of the Oath of Innocence is an expression of that blamelessness and integrity It is what God expects of Job though he cannot tell him that directly c Finally they fail to give full expression of God s ultimate judgement on Job Job and only Job spoke rightly about God In the face of such a judgement there is no room to attribute sin or wrongdoing to Job for either his so called excessive words or for his Oath of Innocence My personal interpretation charts a new middle course between these two fold horrors
