Humphry Ward and Greenian Philosophy Helen Loader, 2019-03-26 This book examines Mary Ward's distinctive insight into late Victorian and Edwardian society as a famous writer and reformer who was inspired by the philosopher and British idealist Thomas Hill Green. As a talented woman who had studied among Oxford University intellectuals in the 1870s and the granddaughter of Dr Arnold of Rugby, Mrs Humphry Ward, as she was best known, was in a unique position to participate in the debates, issues, and events that shaped her generation: religious doubt and Christianity, educational reforms, socialism, women's suffrage, and the First World War. Helen Loader examines a range of biographical sources alongside Mary Ward's writings and social reform activities to demonstrate how she expressed and engaged with Greenian idealism both in theory and practice and made a significant contribution to British Society.
