Six Contemporary British Novelists:

Six Contemporary British Novelists George Stade, Six Modern British Novelists George Stade,1974 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women s protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence

Six Contemporary British Novelists George Stade,1976 Six Modern British Novelists George Stade,1965 Six Modern British Novelists ,1974 Post-War British Women Novelists and the Canon Nick Turner,2011-11-03 With the increasing number of books on contemporary fiction there is a need for a work that examines whom we value and why These questions lie at the heart of this book which by focusing on four novelists literary and popular interrogates the canon over the last fifty years The argument unfolds to demonstrate that academic trends increasingly control canonicity as do the demands of genre the increasing commercialisation of literature and the power of the literary prize Turner argues that literary excellence demonstrated by style and imaginative power is often missing in many works that have become modern classics and makes a case for the value of the universal in literature Written in a jargon free style with reference to many supporting writers the book raises a number of significant cultural questions about the arts fashions and literary reputations of interest to readers in contemporary literary studies Contemporary British Novelists Nick Rennison,2004-12-31 Featuring a broad range of contemporary British novelists from Iain Banks to Jeanette Winterson Louis de Bernieres to Irvine Welsh and Salman Rushdie this book offers an excellent introductory guide to the contemporary literary scene Each entry includes concise biographical information on each of the key novelists and analysis of their major works and themes Fully cross referenced and containing extensive guides to further reading Fifty Contemporary British Novelists is the ideal guide to modern British fiction for both the student and the contemporary fiction buff alike

The grotesque in contemporary British fiction Robert Duggan,2016-05-16 The grotesque in contemporary British fiction reveals the extent to which the grotesque endures as a dominant artistic mode in British fiction and presents a new way of understanding six authors who have been at the forefront of British literature over the past four decades Starting with a sophisticated exploration of the historical development of the grotesque in literature the book outlines the aesthetic trajectories of Angela Carter Martin Amis Ian McEwan Iain Banks Will Self and Toby Litt and offers detailed critical readings of key works of modern fiction including The Bloody Chamber 1979 Money 1984 The Child in Time 1987 The Wasp Factory 1984 Great Apes 1997 and Ghost Story 2004 The book shows how the grotesque continues to be a powerful force in contemporary writing and provides an illuminating picture of often controversial aspects of recent fiction Six modern British novelists. Edited with an introduction by George Stade George STADE (Chairman of the English Department, at Columbia University.),1974 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1977

Christopher Isherwood Paul Piazza,2010-06-01 Christopher Isherwood Fictional Death and the Modernist Enterprise Alan Warren Friedman,1995-01-26 This 1995 book analyses of the semiotics of death and dying in twentieth century fiction history and culture Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix,2011-11-03 A monograph analysing the symbolic role played by contemporary fiction in the break up of political and cultural consensus in British public life Collection of Ancient and Modern British Novels and Romances Edward George Earle Bulwer Lytton (Lord),1833 The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman,Rita Dworkin,1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world Collection of Ancient and Modern British Authors James Fenimore Cooper,1839 Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert,1996 In Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert examines the first and most prolific phase of Graham Greene's career demonstrating the close relationship between Greene's fiction and the political economic social and literary contexts of the period Situating Greene alongside other young writers who responded to the worsening political climate of the 1930s by promoting social and political reform Diemert argues that Greene believed literature could not be divorced from its social and political milieu and saw popular forms of writing as the best way to inform a wide audience Diemert traces Greene's adaptation of nineteenth century romance thrillers and classical detective stories into modern political thrillers as a means of presenting serious concerns in an engaging fashion He argues that Greene's popular thrillers were in part a reaction to the high modernism of writers such as James Joyce Gertrude Stein and Virginia Woolf whose esoteric experiments with language were disengaged from immediate social concerns and inaccessible to a large segment of the reading public Collection of Ancient and Modern British Authors Daniel Defoe,1836 Gendering Classicism Ruth Hoberman,1997-01-01 Gendering Classicism explores the intersection of feminism historical fiction and modernism through the work of six writers all of whom wrote historical novels set in ancient Greece or Rome Naomi Mitchison Mary Butts Laura Riding Phyllis Bentley Bryher and Mary Renault As women gained access to higher education in the late nineteenth century they gained access also to the classical learning that had for so long demarcated and legitimated the British ruling classes Steeped in misogyny the classical tradition presented educated women with a massive project the recasting of that tradition in terms that acknowledged the existence of women as historical agents and interpreters of the historical past Collection of Ancient and Modern
