The Sixteen Pleasures Robert Hellenga, 1995-05-01 Chapter One Where I Want to Be I was twenty nine years old when the Arno flooded its banks on Friday 4 November 1966 According to the Sunday New York Times the damage wasn't extensive but by Monday it was clear that Florence was a disaster Twenty feet of water in the cloisters of Santa Croce the Cimabue crucifix ruined beyond hope of restoration panels ripped from the Baptistery doors the basement of the Biblioteca Nazionale completely underwater hundreds of thousands of volumes waterlogged the Archivio di Stato in total disarray On Tuesday I decided to go to Italy to offer my services as a humble book conservator to help in any way I could to save whatever could be saved including myself The decision wasn't a popular one at home Papa was having money troubles of his own and didn't want to pay for a ticket And my boss at the Newberry Library didn't understand either He already had his ticket paid for by the library and needed me to mind the store There wasn't any point in both of us going was there The why don't I go and you can mind the store Because because because Yes Because it just didn't make sense He couldn't see his way clear to granting me a leave of absence not even a leave of absence without pay He even suggested that the library might have to replace me in which case But I decided to go anyway I had enough money in my savings account for a ticket on Icelandic and I figured I could live on the cheap once I got there Besides I wanted to break the mold in which my life was hardening and I thought this might be a way to do it Going to Florence was better than waiting around with nothing coming up My English teacher at Kenwood High used to say that we're like onions you can peel off one layer after another and never get to a center an inner core You just run out of layers But I think I'm like a peach or an apricot or a nectarine There's a pit at the center I can crack my teeth on it or I can suck on it like a piece of candy but it won't crumble and it won't dissolve The pit is an image of myself when I was nineteen I'm in Sardegna and I'm standing high up on a large rock a cliff actually and I don't have any clothes on and everyone is looking at me telling me to come down not to jump it's too high It's my second time in Italy I spent a year here with Mama when I was fifteen and then I came back by myself after finishing high school at home to do the last year of the liceo with my former classmates Now we're celebrating the end of our examinations Silvia who spent a year with us in Chicago Claudia Rossella Giulio Fabio Alessandro Names like flowers or bells And me Margot Harrington More friends are coming later Silvia's parents my host family have a summer house just outside Terranova but we're camping on the beach five kilometers down the coast The coast is safe they say though there are bandits in the centro Wow It's my birthday August first and we've had a supper of bluefish and squid that we caught with a net The squid taste like rubber bands the heavy kind that I used to chew on in grade school and that boys sometimes used to snap our bottoms with in junior high Life is sharp and snappy too full of promise like the sting of those rubber bands I've passed my examinations with distinction I'm going to Harvard in the fall well to Radcliffe I've got an Italian boyfriend named Fabio Fabbriani and I've just been skinny dipping in the stinging cold salt sea The others have put their clothes on now I can see them below me

sitting around the remains of the fire in shorts and halter tops and shirts with the sleeves rolled up two turns talking glancing up nervously but I want to savor the taste thrill of my own nakedness a little longer unembarrassed in the dwindling light It s the scariest thing I ve ever done except coming to Italy in the first place Fabio sits with his back toward me while he smokes a cigarette pretending to be angry because I won t come down but when I close my eyes and will him to turn he puts his cigarette out in the sand and turns Just at that moment I jump sucking in my breath for a scream but then holding it in case I need it latter which I do I hit the Tyrrhenian Sea feet first generating little waves that will in theory soon be lapping the beaches along the entire western coast of Italy Sicily and North Africa too The Tyrrhenian Sea responds by closing over me and it s pitch not like the pool in Chicago where I learned to swim but deep and dark and dangerous and deadly The air in my lungs the scream and I saved for just such an occasion carries me up to the surface and I strike out for the cove meeting Fabio before I m halfway there wondering if like me he s naked under the water and not knowing for sure till we re walking waist deep and he takes me by the shoulders and kisses me and I can feel something bobbing against my legs like a floating cork We haven t made love yet but it s won t be long now O dio mio The waiting is so lovely He squeezes my buns and I squeeze his surprised and then we splash in to the beach and put on our clothes What I didn t know at the time was that my mother had become seriously ill Instead of spending the rest of the summer in Sardegna I had to go back to Chicago and then after that nothing happened I mean none of the things I d expected to happen happened Instead of making love with Fabio Fabbriani on the verge of the Tyrrhenian Sea I got laid on a vinyl sofa in the back room of the SNCC headquarters on Forty seventh Street Instead of going to Harvard I went to Edgar Lee Masters College where Mama had taught art history for twenty years Instead of going to graduate school I spent two years at the Institute for Paper Technology on Green Bay Avenue instead of becoming a research chemist I apprenticed myself to a book conservator in Hyde Park and then took a position in the conservation department of the Newberry Library Instead of getting married and having a daughter of my own I lived at home and looked after Mama who was dying of lung cancer A year went by two years three years four Mama died Papa lost most of his money My sister Meg got married and moved away my sister Molly went to California with her boyfriend and then to Ann Arbor The sixties were churning around me and I couldn t seem to get a footing I tried to plunge in to get wet to catch hold to find a place in one of the boats tossing and turning on the white water rapids the sit ins the rock concerts the freedom rides SNCC CORE SDS the Civil Rights Act the Great Society I spent a lot of time holding hands and singing We shall overcome I spent a lot of time buying coffee and doughnuts and rolling joints and I spent some time on my back too the only position for a woman in the Movement I d had no sleep on the plane my eyes were blurry so it was hard to read and besides the story I was reading was as depressing as the view from the window of the train flat gray poor dreary actively ugly rather than passively uninteresting And I kept thinking about Papa and his money troubles and his lawsuits and about the embroidered seventeenth century prayer books on my work table at the Newberry that needed to be disbound washed mended and re sewn before Christmas for an exhibit sponsored by the Caxton Club So I was under a certain amount of pressure I was looking for a sign the way some religious people look for signs something to let them know they re on the right track Or on the wrong track in which case they can turn back I didn t know what I was looking for but I was trying to pay attention to notice everything the faces of the two American women sitting opposite me in the compartment scribbling furiously in their notebooks the Neapolitan accent of the Italian conductor the depressing French farmhouses gray boxes of stucco or cinder block I couldn t make out which That s what I was doing paying attention when the train pulled into the station at Metz and I saw the Saint Cyr cadet on the platform bright as the Archangel Gabriel bringing the good news to the Virgin Mary I d better explain Papa did all the cooking in our family He started when Mama went to Italy one summer when I was nine it was right after the war to look at the pictures to see for herself what she d only seen in the Harvard University Prints series and on old three by four inch tinted slides that she used to project on the dining room wall and when she came back he kept on doing it My sisters and I did the dishes and Papa took care of everything else day in and day out and whether it was Italian or French or Chinese or Malaysian it was always wonderful it was always special Penne alla puttanesca an arista tied with sprigs of rosemary paper thin strips of beef marinated in hoisin sauce and Szechwan peppercorns whole fresh salmon poached in white wine and finished with a mustard sauce chicken thighs simmered in soy sauce and lime juice curries so fiery that at their first bite unwary guests would clutch their throats and cry out for water which didn t help a bit Those were our favorites the standards against which we measured other dishes but our very favorite treat of all was the dessert Papa made on our birthdays instead of cake which was supposed to look like the hats worn by cadets at Saint Cyr the French military academy We d never been to Saint Cyr of course but we would have recognized a cadet anywhere in the world if he d been wearing his hat That s why I was so startled when I looked out the window of the Luxembourg Venise Express and saw my cadet standing there on the platform the young man Papa had teased me about the Prince Charming who had never materialized He was holding a suitcase in one hand and shifting his weight back and forth from one foot to the other as if he had to go to the bathroom and his parents were talking at him so intensely that I thought for a minute he was going to miss the train And his hat I couldn t believe it was a real hat and not a frozen mousse of chocolate and egg whites and whipped cream with squiggly Italian meringues running up and down the sides for braids That hat stirred something inside me made me feel I was doing the right thing and that I ought to keep going that things would work out Just to make sure I closed my eyes and willed him into the compartment just as I had once willed Fabio Fabbriani to turn and watch me plunge feet first into the sea As I was willing him into the compartment I was willing the American women out of it not making my cadet s appearance contingent on their departure however because I was pretty sure they weren t going to budge I kept my face down in my book and waited eyes closed lightly listening to the noises in the corridor I was I suppose still operating at least subconsciously on a fairy tale model of reality I was Sleeping Beauty or Snow White waiting for some prince whose romantic kisses would awaken my full feelings liberate my story senses emancipate my drowsy and constrained imagination take me back to that last Italian summer The train was already in motion when the door of the compartment finally opened I kept my eyes closed another two seconds and then looked up at not my Prince Charming but the Neapolitan conductor an old man so frail I d had to help him hoist the American women s mammoth suitcases onto the overhead luggage rack These suitcases were to luggage what Burberrys are to rainwear lots of extra pockets and straps and mysterious zippers concealed under flaps I asked him about the Saint Cyr cadet The next compartment he said Not your type Too young You need an older man like me You re already married He shrugged putting his whole body into it arms hands shoulders head cocked stomach pulled in Better tell your friends we were speaking in Italian that the dining car will be taken off the train before we cross the border You need to reserve a seat early I nodded Unless he went on they have those valises stuffed with American food Porcamattina He glanced upward at the suitcases tapped his cheekbone with an index finger and was gone I felt for these American women some of the mixed feelings that the traveler feels for the tourist On the one hand you want to help to show off your knowledge on the other you don t want to get involved I didn t want to get involved They weren t my type These were saltwater women sailors golfers tennis players clubwomen with suntans in November large limbed confident conspicuous firm trim sleek as walruses in their worsted wool suits They reminded me of the Gold Coast women who used to show up around the edges of CORE demonstrations with their checkbooks open telling us how much they admired what we were doing and how they wished they could help more All fucked up ideologically according to our leaders at SNCC They think their shit don t stink As far as they knew I was a scruffy little Italian I hadn t spoken a word of English in their presence and I was reading an Italian novel and it was too late to undeceive them I had heard too much I knew for example that they d met the previous summer at some kind of writing workshop at Johns Hopkins University and that they d both jumped into the sack with their instructor a novelist named Philip I knew that Philip was bald but well hung like a shillelagh I knew that neither of them had done it dog fashion BP before Philip and that they were traveling second class because Philip had told them they d get more material that way for the stories they were going to write now that they were divorced Part of their agenda I gathered was to notice things to pay attention Maybe they were looking for signs too maybe not in either case they seemed to be trying to impress the details of European railroad travel onto the pages of their marbled composition books by sheer physical force Nothing escaped their notice not even the signs in French German and Italian warning passengers not to throw things out the window and not to pull the cord on the signal d alarme All the details went into their notebooks the fine of not less than 5 000 FF the prison term of not less than one year And when one noticed something the other did too the instructions on the window latch the way the armrests worked the captions on the faded views of Chartres Cathedral that hung on the walls of the compartment above the backs of the seats I was tempted to look at them myself but I didn t want to give myself away or interrupt their game I kept my nose in my book Natalia Ginzburg s Lessico familiare It was a strenuous hour and I was glad when simultaneously panting like dogs after a good run they closed their notebooks and resumed their conversation

Snakewoman of Little Egypt Robert Hellenga,2010-09-20 Jackson Jones is trying to decide whether to remain an anthropology professor in his small Midwestern town or to return to doing fieldwork among the Mbuti people in their African Garden of Eden His ruminations are interrupted by the arrival of a late friend s niece who has just been sprung from jail Sunny admits that she shot her husband an evangelical pastor from the Little Egypt region of Illinois but he had it coming after forcing her to take on a rattle snake As an anthropologist Jackson is curious about Sunny s experiences with The Church of the Burning Bush as a man he is not immune to her backwoods sassiness Although Sunny is pleased to be with a kind partner at last she is also serious about her belated education funded by her late uncle at Jackson s university French and herpetology compete for her attention and Jackson s plan to take her to Paris to propose marriage are waylaid when she decides to travel to an academic conference with her biology professor instead Jackson is crushed and heads for Little Egypt in Sunny s absence to get to know her ex husband and to study the snake handling ceremonies at his evangelical church Complications ensue including Jackson s near death experience and Sunny s murder of her ex but fate is a positive force for all in the end Packed with both information and emotion Snakewoman of Little Egypt delivers Robert Hellenga at the top of his form

Aretino's Satyr Raymond B. Waddington,2004-01-01 Pietro Aretino s literary influence was felt throughout most of Europe during the sixteenth century yet English language criticism of this writer s work and persona has hitherto been sparse Raymond B Waddington s study redresses this oversight drawing together literary and visual arts criticism in its examination of Aretino s carefully cultivated scandalous persona a persona created through his writings his behaviour and through a wide variety of visual arts and crafts In the Renaissance it was believed that satire originated from satyrs The satirist Aretino promoted himself as a satyr the natural being whose sexuality guarantees its truthfulness Waddington shows how Aretino s own construction of his public identity came to eclipse the value of his writings causing him to be denigrated as a pornographer and blackmailer Arguing that Aretino s deployment of an artistic network for self promotional ends was so successful that for a period his face was possibly the most famous in Western Europe Waddington also defends Aretino describing his involvement in the larger sphere of the production and promotion of the visual arts of the period Aretino s Satyr is richly illustrated with examples of the visual media used by the writer to create his persona These include portraits by major artists and arti minori engravings portrait medals and woodcuts

The Confessions of Frances Godwin Robert Hellenga,2014-07-08 The Confessions of Frances Godwin is the fictional memoir of a retired high school Latin teacher looking back on a life of trying to do her best amidst transgressions starting with her affair with Paul whom she later marries. Now that Paul is dead and she's retired, Frances Godwin thinks her story is over, but of course the rest of her life is full of surprises, including the truly shocking turn of events that occurs when she takes matters into her own hands after her daughter Stella's husband grows increasingly abusive. And though she is not a particularly pious person in the aftermath of her actions, God begins speaking to her. There is a deliciously antagonistic relationship that will compel both believers and nonbelievers alike. From a small town in the Midwest to the Piazza Santa Maria in Trastevere in Rome, The Confessions of Frances Godwin touches on the great questions of human existence: Is there something out there that takes an interest in us? Or is the universe ultimately indifferent? The 16 Perfective Laws of Art Applied to Oratory Charles Wesley Emerson, 1901 Up All NIGHT Rich Trout, 2025-05-24

Up All Night not only grips readers in unrelenting humor but it offers a fresh voice embracing readers with graphic injuries, tender recollections, big surprises, and love. Posing nuanced psychological questions while never losing its heart, Up All Night traces the challenges of living with undiagnosed Asperger's syndrome before the social disorder became known in 1992. The memoir recaptures the integration of two families, Trout and Caspers, while showing how impactful a married couple can be despite their incapacity to see the obvious. Richie Trout was the boy who'd never have a girlfriend, said classmate Michelle West, whose rule as one of the three queens in Mr. Kucera's sixth-grade class intimidated every male student. Almost every chapter is hysterical. Some are poignant. The tale also offers a warning to young people who recently suffered the loss of a first love or who may face that future trauma. With a modest yet entertaining action-packed style enhanced by an Aspie's acute long-term memory, Trout delves into vivid cringe-worthy and demoralizing episodes. Anyone with fond memories of the years from grade school to college and adulthood will rejoice. Trout's move to Hobbs, New Mexico, or Opposite Land, nicknamed for its stark differences from Chicago, becomes his springboard to social skills, empathy, and fatherhood. Up All Night circles back to sixth grade in the final chapters when Trout confronts a lingering boogeyman. Amidst the laughter-filled classrooms and carefree friendships, there lies an undercurrent of seeking a desire that pulls our protagonist toward love, a force as inspiring as it is devastating. Yet this is a journey not just about finding others but about finding oneself amidst the backdrop of societal norms and spiritual beliefs.

Dr. Whitney Boykin, Mental Health Professional and Professor of Business, tells the story of a young man maneuvering through the many stages of development while saddled with the complication of Asperger's syndrome, as if riding the coattails of a southeast New Mexico dust devil. Never knowing the direction each chapter would take, the reader anxiously anticipates the next amazing experience seen through the eyes of the author. Gay Kernan, former New Mexico State Senator of 21 years, watching Richard develop as a professional with atypical neurological patterns, was a great gift. The peek into his world provided by his book is such a treat. The limitations he had in verbal communication are removed in the written word, and you will enjoy his witty and poetic retelling of adolescent angst and male rites of passage Dr Elyn Palmer Director of Graduate Student Success Texas Tech University Rich Trout's challenges as a person with autism and rewards as a son father and friend are vividly conveyed in his memoir that chronicles his journey from the Chicago suburbs to the Southwest In this socio historical and personal account Rich Trout a seasoned journalist is at his best Trout's memoir bears the stamp of inevitability and reflects his passion for the art Peter Mladnic Author of The Homesick Mortician Riveting Just when you think you know a person you turn each page and realize the intricacies you missed Don't walk run Don't hop jump instead Climb trees and even mountaintops if you have to in order to secure your copy Dr Jazmine Brantley Lecturer Texas Tech University

Pietro Aretino: Subverting the System in Renaissance Italy Raymond B. Waddington, 2024-10-28 The essays gathered together in this volume follow the career of the sixteenth century courtier poet Pietro Aretino Part One introduces the author during the 1520s in Rome with his remarkable first comedy La Cortigiana With Aretino's move to Venice 1527 he found a congenial life long home in which he could flourish Yet the transition from courtier poet to poligrafo vernacular writer for the popular press was slow and difficult before he adopted a new career model derived from Erasmus even then he contemplated abandoning Italy for the Ottoman Empire Part Two examines his work as a satirist in the mid thirties with the Ragionamenti the dialogues that branded him a pornographer when the satiric targets lost their immediacy He augmented the satiric writings by creating the visual persona of a satirist in various media woodcut author portraits in books engravings and particularly portrait medals The complementary verbal visual relationship is the subject of this pairing Aretino's religious writings have not been taken seriously until quite recently The two essays presented here trace Aretino's associations with Erasmians spirituali heretics and apostates arguing that his own convictions were sincere suggesting that he became a Nicodemite during the gathering Counter Reformation repression of the 1540s The concluding essays consider two examples of Aretino's continuing influence in different media visual arts and literature on the brilliant eccentric artist Giuseppe Arcimboldo and on a great English comedy Ben Jonson's Volpone

The Devil in the Gallery Noah Charney, 2021-09-15 It's an in depth look at varied time periods and artists which readers interested in gossip drama or art history will enjoy Library Journal Starred Review Scandal shock and rivalry all have negative connotations don't they They can be catastrophic to businesses and individual careers A whiff of scandal can turn a politician into a smoking ruin But these potentially disastrous negatives can and have spurred the world of fine art to new heights A look at the history of art tells us that rivalries have in fact not only benefited the course of art from ancient times to the present but have also helped shape our narrative of art lending it a sense of drama that it might otherwise lack and therefore drawing the interest of a public who might not be drawn to the objects alone There would be no Sistine Chapel by Michelangelo had rival Raphael not tricked the pope into assigning him the commission certain that

Michelangelo who had never before worked with frescoes would botch the job and become a laughing stock Scandal and shock have proven to be powerful weapons when harnessed and wielded willfully and well That scandal is good for exposure has been so obviously the case that many artists have courted it intentionally which we will define as shock intentionally overturning expectations of the majority in a way that traditionalist find dismaying or upsetting but which a certain minority avant garde find exciting From Damien Hirst presenting the public with a shark embalmed in formaldehyde and entombed in a glass case to Marcel Duchamp trying to convince the art community that a urinal is a great sculpture shock has been a key promotional tool The Devil in the Gallery is a guided tour of the history of art through its scandals rivalries and shocking acts each of which resulted in a positive step forward for art in general and in most cases for the careers of the artists in question In addition to telling dozens of stories lavishly illustrated in full color of such dramatic moments and arguing how they not only affected the history of art but affected it for the better we will also examine the proactive role of the recipients of these intentionally dramatic actions The art historians the critics and even you the general public The Devil likes to lurk in dark corners of the art world morphing into many forms Let us shed light upon him

The Visible and the Invisible Daniela Hammer-Tugendhat, 2015-03-10 The book addresses the scientific debates on Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer and Hoogstraten that are currently taking place in art history and cultural studies These focus mainly on the representation of gender difference the relationship between text and image and the emotional discourse They are also an appeal for art history as a form of cultural studies that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices Dutch painting of the seventeenth century reflects its relationship to visible reality It deals with ambiguities and contradictions As an avant garde artistic media it also contributes to the emergence of a subjectivity towards the modern bourgeois It discards subject matter from its traditional fixation with iconology and evokes different imaginations and semantizations aspects that have not been sufficiently taken into account in previous research The book is to be understood as an appeal for art history as a form of cultural science that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices and at the same time demonstrates its relevance today Works by Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer Hoogstraten and others serve as exemplary case studies for addressing current debates in art history and cultural studies such as representation of gender difference relationship between text and image and emotional discourse

The 12-Hour Art Expert Noah Charney, 2022-10-30 Brimming with examples from across the artistic spectrum this is the perfect primer to hook future art enthusiasts Publishers Weekly Interested in art but feel under informed Curious but afraid you might not get it Already a fan and wishing to immerse yourself in a fun engaging informative and informed read that will refresh and top up your Art History 101 and Introduction to Art courses from college The 12 Hour Art Expert Everything You Need to Know about Art in a Dozen Masterpieces avoids the common approach of throwing hundreds of images at a reader and expecting them to learn from and memorize them all Instead the book will guide its readers through a brief series of masterpieces of Western art from cave paintings to sharks in formaldehyde This book twelve chapters teach readers about art the art trade and art history in a thorough though concise fashion Each chapter is linked to one notable masterpiece with references to others giving readers a fixed digestible number of objects that they will get to know in depth and which they can use as a lens to understand the thousands of other related objects that they might encounter in the future Museums can be daunting and art presents a strange new language one that certainly intrigues but is often intimidating and foreign This book written by one of the world s best known art historians uses entertaining stories to break down intimidating barriers and invites readers of all ages for a one stop immersion into art Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art Jennifer Cochran Anderson,Douglas

N. Dow,2021-03-22 The essays in Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art address a foundational concept that was as central to early modern thinking as it is to our own that the past is always an important part of the present Written by the friends students and colleagues of Dr Brian Curran former professor of Art History at the Pennsylvania State University these authors demonstrate how reverberations of the past within the present are intrinsic to the ways in which we think about the history of art Examinations of sculpture painting and architecture reveal the myriad ways that history has been appropriated reinvented and rewritten as subsequent generations including the authors collected here have attained new insight into the past and present Contributors Denise Costanzo William E Wallace Theresa A Kutasz Christensen Ingrid Rowland Anthony Cutler Marilyn Aronberg Lavin Louis Alexander Waldman Elizabeth Petersen Cyron Stuart Lingo Jessica Boehman Katherine M Bentz Robin L Thomas and John Pinto The World's Fair Rose Judith Ann,2011-02-01 Rosamund was born in poverty and rose to become one of the beauties of her age She captured the King s heart thus drawing herself into a dangerous rivalry with his wife the formidable Eleanor Henry II shows his devotion to Rosamund his fair rose by building a bower safe within a maze and making her the richest woman of her age Rosamund must risk the wrath of Eleanor and the church and run the gauntlet of moral persecution in a society that was unforgiving towards women Now in this new historical fiction Rosamund s life in 12th Century England has been vividly imagined This is not just a romantic historical romp it s a story as tragic and timeless as it is scandalous Shakespeare Among the Courtesans Duncan Salkeld,2016-04-01 Courtesans women who achieve wealth status or power through sexual transgression have played both a central and contradictory role in literature they have been admired celebrated feared and vilified This study of the courtesan in Renaissance English drama focuses not only on the moral ambivalence of these women but with special attention to Anglo Italian relations illuminates little known aspects of their lives It traces the courtesan from a wry comedic character in the plays of Terence and Plautus to its literary exhaustion in the seventeenth century dramatic works of Dekker Marston Webster Middleton Shirley and Brome The author focuses especially on the presentation of the courtesan in the sixteenth century dramas by Shakespeare Marlowe and Lyly view the courtesan as a symbol of social disease and decay transforming classical conventions into English prejudices Renaissance Anglo Italian cultural and sexual relations are also investigated through comparisons of travel
