Macri, Matthew GeorgeLooper, 2003 For hundreds of years Maya artists and scholars used hieroglyphs to record their history and culture In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries archaeologists photographers and artists recorded the Maya carvings that remained often by transporting box cameras and plaster casts through the jungle on muleback The New Catalog of Maya Hieroglyphs Volume I The Classic Period Inscriptions is a guide to all the known hieroglyphic symbols of the Classic Maya script In the New Catalog Martha J Macri and Matthew G Looper have produced a valuable research tool based on the latest Mesoamerican scholarship An essential resource for all students of Maya texts the New Catalog is also accessible to nonspecialists with an interest in Mesoamerican cultures Macri and Looper present the combined knowledge of the most reliable scholars in Maya epigraphy They provide currently accepted syllabic and logographic values a history of references to published discussions of each sign and related lexical entries from dictionaries of Maya languages all of which were compiled through the Maya Hieroglyphic Database Project This first volume of the New Catalog focuses on texts from the Classic Period approximately 150 900 C E which have been found on carved stone monuments stucco wall panels wooden lintels carved and painted pottery murals and small objects of jadeite shell bone and wood The forthcoming second volume will describe the hieroglyphs of the three surviving Maya codices that date from later periods Parallel Worlds Kerry M. Hull, Michael D. Carrasco, 2012-05-15 Despite recent developments in epigraphy ethno poetics and the literary investigation of colonial and modern materials few studies have compared glyphic texts and historic Maya literatures Parallel Worlds examines Maya writing and literary traditions from the Classic period until today revealing remarkable continuities across time In this volume contributions from leading scholars in Maya literary studies examine Maya discourse from Classic period hieroglyphic inscriptions to contemporary spoken narratives focusing on parallelism to unite the literature historically Contributors take an ethno poetic approach examining literary and verbal arts from a historical perspective acknowledging that poetic form is as important as narrative content in deciphering what these writings reveal about ancient and contemporary worldviews Encompassing a variety of literary motifs including humor folklore incantation mythology and more specific forms of parallelism such as couplets chiasms kennings and hyperbatons Parallel Worlds is a rich journey through Maya culture and pre Columbian literature that will be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology ethnography Latin American history epigraphy comparative literature language studies indigenous studies and mythology Ancient

Maya Political Economies Marilyn A. Masson, David A. Freidel, 2002 Ancient Maya Political Economies examines variation in systems of economic production and exchange and how these systems supported the power networks that integrated Maya society Using models originally developed by William L Rathje the authors explore core periphery relations the use of household analysis to reconstruct political economy and evidence for market development In doing so they challenge the conventional wisdom of decentralized Maya political authority and replace it with a more complex view of the political economic foundations of Maya civilization 2000 Years of Mayan Literature Dennis Tedlock, 2011-11-04 A chronological survey of Mayan literature covering two thousand years from the earliest hieroglyphic inscriptions to later works using the Roman alphabet The Archaeology and Politics of Food and Feasting in Early States and Empires Tamara L. Harris, 1994-01-29 The Memory of Bones Stephen Houston, David Stuart, Karl Taube, 2006-06-01 All of human experience flows from bodies that feel express emotion and think about what such experiences mean But is it possible for us embodied as we are in a particular time and place to know how people of long ago thought about the body and its experiences In this groundbreaking book three leading experts on the Classic Maya ca AD 250 to 850 marshal a vast array of evidence from Maya iconography and hieroglyphic writing as well as archaeological findings to argue that the Classic Maya developed a coherent approach to the human body that we can recover and understand today The authors open with a cartography of the Maya body its parts and their meanings as depicted in imagery and texts They go on to explore such issues as how the body was replicated in portraiture how it experienced the world through ingestion the senses and the emotions how the body experienced war and sacrifice and the pain and sexuality that were intimately bound up in these domains how words often heaven sent could be embodied and how bodies could be blurred through spirit possession From these investigations the authors convincingly demonstrate that the Maya conceptualized the body in varying roles as a metaphor of time as a gendered sexualized being in distinct stages of life as an instrument of honor and dishonor as a vehicle for communication and consumption as an exemplification of beauty and ugliness and as a dancer and song maker Their findings open a new avenue for empathetically understanding the ancient Maya as living human beings who experienced the world as we do through the body
