Sketches from Concord and Appledore Frank Preston Stearns, 2014-05-18 To one looking westward from Boston State House there appears a line of rugged precipitous hills extending across the country from southwest to northeast Having ascended these heights we perceive beyond them an irregular line of pale blue mountains of which Wachusett is the most southerly peak and which is in fact a portion of the White Mountain range extending through New Hampshire and into the northern part of Maine The watershed between these two forms the valley of the Concord and Merrimac Rivers which is the first military line of defence in New England west of the sea coast It is for this reason that the first struggle for American independence took place on the banks of the Concord River and not elsewhere a fact that might have been predicted though not of course with certainty when Boston was first settled Sketches from Concord and Appledore.
