Antike Plastik 5.0:// Paul Scheding,Michael Remmy,2014     Mutilation and Transformation Eric Varner,2004-06-01 The condemnation of memory inexorably altered the visual landscape of imperial Rome Representations of bad emperors such as Caligula Nero Domitian Commodus or Elagabalus were routinely reconfigured into likenesses of victorious successors or revered predecessors Alternatively portraits could be physically attacked and mutilated or even executed in effigy From the late first century B C until the fourth century A D the recycling and destruction of images of emperors empresses and other members of the imperial family occurred on a vast scale and often marked periods of violent political transition This volume catalogues and interprets the sculptural glyptic numismatic and epigraphic evidence for damnatio memoriae and ultimately reveals its praxis to be at the core of Roman cultural identity     Public Opinion and Politics in the Late Roman Republic Cristina Rosillo-López, 2017-06-01 This book investigates the working mechanisms of public opinion in Late Republican Rome as a part of informal politics It explores the political interaction and sometimes opposition between the elite and the people through various means such as rumours gossip political literature popular verses and graffiti It also proposes the existence of a public sphere in Late Republican Rome and analyses public opinion in that time as a system of control By applying the spatial turn to politics it becomes possible to study sociability and informal meetings where public opinion circulated What emerges is a wider concept of the political participation of the people not just restricted to voting or participating in the assemblies
