

In the service industries in large US-based retail stores (from great customer to the first class of service to the great product), it is hard to believe that there is not a more efficient way to do things. The first reason is a more customer-oriented perspective. For example, in the retail industry, it is not to say that the first reason is a more customer-oriented perspective. For example, in the retail industry, it is not to say that the first reason is a more customer-oriented perspective.
