Slavery and Colonial Rule in French West Africa Martin A. Klein, 1998-07-28 Martin Klein's book is a history of slaves during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in three former French colonies. It investigates the changing nature of local slavery over time and the evolving French attitudes towards it through the phases of trade conquest and colonial rule. The heart of the study focuses on the period between 1876 and 1922 when a French army composed largely of slave soldiers took massive numbers of slaves in the interior while in areas near the coast hesitant actions were taken against slave raiding, trading and use. After 1900 the French withdrew state support of slavery and as many as a million slaves left their masters. A second exodus occurred after World War I when soldiers of slave origin returned home. The renegotiation of relationships between those who remained and their masters carries the story into the contemporary world. The Economic History of Colonialism Leigh Gardner, Tirthankar Roy, 2020-07-15 Debates about the origins and effects of European rule in the non-European world have animated the field of economic history since the 1850s. This pioneering text provides a concise and accessible resource that introduces key readings, builds connections between ideas, and helps students to develop informed views of colonialism as a force in shaping the modern world. With special reference to European colonialism of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in both Asia and Africa, this book critically reviews the literature on colonialism and economic growth; covers a range of different methods of analysis; offers a comparative approach as opposed to a collection of regional histories; deftly weaving together different themes. With debates around globalization, migration, global finance and environmental change intensifying, this authoritative account of the relationship between colonialism and economic development makes an invaluable contribution to several distinct literatures in economic history.

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages. He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre-colonial African history and society in seven texts: Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911; Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934; Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938; D.O. Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938; Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954; and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958. Wehrs highlights the role of pre-colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices. By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Witchcraft and Colonial Rule in Kenya, 1900-1955 Katherine Luongo,2011-09-26 Focusing on colonial Kenya this book shows how conflicts between state authorities and Africans over witchcraft related crimes provided an important space in which the meanings of justice law and order in the empire were debated Katherine Luongo discusses the emergence of imperial networks of knowledge about witchcraft She then demonstrates how colonial concerns about witchcraft produced an elaborate body of jurisprudence about capital crimes The book analyzes the legal wrangling that produced the Witchcraft Ordinances in the 1910s the birth of an anthro administrative complex surrounding witchcraft in the 1920s the hotly contested Wakamba Witch Trials of the 1930s the explosive growth of legal opinion on witch murder in the 1940s and the unprecedented state sponsored cleansings of witches and Mau Mau adherents during the 1950s A work of anthropological history this book develops an ethnography of Kamba witchcraft or uoi

Slave Trades, 1500-1800 Patrick Manning,2016-12-05 The trade in slaves is perhaps the most notorious feature of the era of European expansion Though begun in ancient times and continued well after 1800 in the early modern period there developed a particular nexus in which it boomed This volume distinguishes between procurement and trade and the exploitation of settled slaves the subject of a separate volume in the series edited by Judy Bieber and underscores the importance of the slave trade as a factor in world history A rank redistribution of wealth and power it permitted the exploitation and reconstruction of much of the globe The articles address issues of the volume and flow of trade the various populations enslaved factors of sex age and ethnicity and its impact on economic change as in the monetization of Africa or economic growth in England Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions Paul E. Lovejoy, 2016-11-30 In Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions a preeminent historian of Africa argues that scholars of the Americas and the Atlantic world have not given Africa its due consideration as part of either the Atlantic world or the age of revolutions. The book examines the jihād movement in the context of the age of revolutions commonly associated with the American and French revolutions and the erosion of European imperialist powers and shows how West Africa too experienced a period of profound political change in the late eighteenth through the mid nineteenth centuries. Paul E. Lovejoy argues that West Africa was a vital actor in the Atlantic world and has wrongly been excluded from analyses of the period. Among its chief contributions the book reconceptualizes slavery. Lovejoy shows that during the decades in question slavery expanded extensively not only in the southern United States, Cuba and Brazil but also in the jihād states of West Africa. In particular this expansion occurred in the Muslim states of the Sokoto Caliphate, Fuuta Jalon and Fuuta Toro. At the same time he offers new information on the role antislavery activity in West Africa played in the Atlantic slave trade and the African diaspora. Finally Jihād in West Africa during the Age of Revolutions provides unprecedented context for the political and cultural role of Islam in Africa and of the concept of jihād in particular from the eighteenth century into the present. Understanding that there is a long tradition of jihād in West Africa Lovejoy argues helps correct the current distortion in understanding the contemporary jihād movement in the Middle East, Afghanistan, Pakistan and Africa. Power and Landscape in Atlantic West Africa J. Cameron Monroe, Akinwumi Ogundiran, 2012-02-13 This volume examines the archaeology of precolonial West African societies in the era of the trans Atlantic slave trade. Using historical and archaeological perspectives on landscape this collection of essays sheds light on how involvement in the commercial revolutions of the early modern period dramatically reshaped the regional contours of political organization across West Africa. The essays examine how social and political transformations occurred at the regional level by exploring regional economic networks, population shifts, cultural values and ideologies. The book demonstrates the importance of anthropological insights not only to the broad political history of West Africa but also to an understanding of political culture as a form of meaningful social practice. Transforming Sudan Alden Young, 2018 This book traces the formation of the Sudanese state following the Second World War through a developmentalist ideology. A Different Vision Thomas D. Boston, 2002-01-04 This work brings together for the first time the ideas, philosophies and interpretations of North America's leading African American economists demonstrating that racial inequality has had an immense impact on African Americans' daily lives. Political Thought and the Public Sphere in Tanzania Emma Hunter, 2015-04-27 This book is a study of the interplay of vernacular and global languages of politics during Africa's decolonization. Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts

Writing the History of Global Slavery Trevor Burnard,2023-11-29 This Element shows that existing models of global slavery derived from sociology and modelled closely on antebellum American slavery being normative should be replaced a global slavery that is less American and more global It argues that we can understand the global history of slavery if we connect it more closely to another important world institution empires in ways that historicise the study of history as an institution with a history that changes over time and space Moreover we can learn from scholars of modern slavery and use more than we do the enormous proliferation of usable sources about the lives experiences and thoughts of the enslaved from ancient to modern times to make these voices of the enslaved crucial drivers of how we conceptualise and describe the varied kinds of global slavery in world history This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core
