STRESS STYLES It is late afternoon on the last Friday of the month At the bank the lines of customers waiting to deposit their paychecks or to withdraw money for the weekend have stretched practically to the front doors At one window a customer finishes and the next person a merchant steps up He opens a cloth bag and produces a stack of checks cash and deposit slips almost two inches thick The teller's eyes widen This will be at least ten minutes work maybe fifteen What about those other customers waiting in line How will they react Interestingly enough the reactions of the customers waiting in line behind the merchant vary considerably Gary Johnson for instance is furious He grinds his cigarette under his heel and mutters about inconsiderate jerks who wait until the last minute to deposit their week's receipts Gary shifts back and forth from foot to foot the swaying of his body telegraphing his frustration He probes his pockets to see whether any of his antacid mints are left Finding none he curses under his breath and lights another cigarette Exercised Daniel
