Faly Colaizzi was born Rafaela Faly Burmeister in Chicago, Illinois, in October 1967. Her mother, father, and sister all reside in Chicago. The author grew up with a love of horses and farmland and is inspired by music of all kinds. She has always had an unwavering love for castles around the world and she travels to see them when she can. She has quite a wild imagination that never rests and that makes the perfect basis for her wonderful tale Haunted Nights at Drumheller Castle. The author graduated from Illinois State University in 1990 and has had a twenty-year career as a sales manager. She is married to Steve Colaizzi, is a working mother of two amazing boys, and is an auntie. She hopes this story, written as a classic Halloween tale, will live on in hearts all over the world.

Nights in Haunted Houses Peter Underwood, 1994. The eerie, quiet and disorientating darkness of the night has long been associated with the terror of the unknown. In the cold light of day it is all too easy for sceptics to dismiss apparently inexplicable events, but in the dead of night, when faced with the evidence of their senses and those of other perfectly rational people, it is far more difficult to ignore the facts, however disturbing they may be. Peter Underwood is Britain's leading ghost hunter. For over thirty years in his position as President and Chief Investigator of the Ghost Club of Great Britain, he was actively involved in undertaking night vigils and carrying out research into ghosts and paranormal activity in controlled scientific conditions. In this unique volume of largely unpublished accounts of nocturnal investigations, he guides you on a chilling tour of the most haunted houses in Great Britain. Among others, we encounter the headless Blue Lady and disturbing, inexplicable odour of lavender of Bovey House in Devon; the happy spirits monk of Bromfield Manor, Shropshire, who chuckles with delight when noticed; and the strange disembodied voices, footsteps, and unnatural coldness of Newark Park, Gloucestershire. In Nights in Haunted Houses, Peter Underwood vividly records terrifying accounts of ghostly encounters in locations as diverse as a farmhouse, a church, a castle, and a council house, and builds a convincing catalogue of evidence for the existence of ghosts.
