So Like Sleep:

So Like Sleep Jeremiah Healy, 2012-04-17 DIVCuddy attempts to exonerate a boy who confessed to murder under hypnosis divDIV divDIVWilliam Daniels nearly didn't make it to college A black student raised in one of Boston's roughest suburbs he once barely skirted time in juvenile hall for gang activities Pressure from his mother convinced William to straighten out and he went on to study at a prestigious university Years after his first brush with the law William is in trouble again and it will take more than a mother's love to keep him free divDIV divDIVWhile hypnotized by his psychiatrist William admits to shooting his girlfriend producing the murder weapon and telling the doctor where to find the body When he comes out of his state William is in handcuffs and thinks he killed the girl But private eye John Francis Cuddy doesn't trust the psychiatrist and risks everything to save this bright young man whose mind has been turned against him div Mary Barton Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell, 1849 Mary Barton Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell, 2008-01-01 Jem's heart beat violently when he saw the gay handsome young man approaching with a light buoyant step This then was he whom Mary loved It was perhaps no wonder for he seemed to the poor smith so elegant so well appointed that he felt the superiority in externals strangely and painfully for an instant Then something arose within him and told him that a man's a man for a that for a that and twice as much a that And he no longer felt troubled by the outward appearance of his rival from Chapter XV As interest in 19th century English literature by women has been reinvigorated by a resurgence in popularity of the works of Jane Austen readers are rediscovering a writer whose fiction once widely beloved fell by the wayside British novelist ELIZABETH CLEGHORN GASKELL 1810 1865 whose books were sometimes initially credited to simply Mrs Gaskell is now recognized as having created some of the most complex and broadminded depictions of women in the literature of the age and is today justly celebrated for her precocious use of the regional dialect and slang of England's industrial North Mary Barton Gaskell's first novel originally published anonymously in 1848 established her reputation as a champion of the working class Set in Manchester where the author herself settled as the wife of a progressive preacher it concerns the trials and tribulations of two poor families the Bartons and the Wilsons and a tragedy that cements their joint fate and highlights the class divide in highly stratified Victorian society Friend and literary companion to the likes of Charles Dickens and Charlotte Brontë the latter of whom Gaskell wrote an acclaimed 1857 biography Gaskell is today being restored to her rightful place alongside them This charming replica volume is an excellent opportunity for 21st century fans of British literature to embrace one of its most unjustly forgotten authors City Economics Brendan O'Flaherty, 2005-10-30 This introductory but innovative textbook on the economics of cities is aimed at students of urban and regional policy as well as of undergraduate economics It deals with standard topics including automobiles mass transit pollution housing and education but it also discusses non standard topics such as segregation water supply sewers garbage fire prevention housing codes homelessness crime illicit drugs and economic development Its methods of analysis are primarily verbal geometric and arithmetic The author achieves coherence by showing how the analysis of various topics reinforces one another Thus buses can tell us something about schools and optimal tolls about land prices Brendan O Flaherty looks at almost everything through the lens of Pareto optimality and potential Pareto optimality how policies affect people and their well being not abstract entities such as cities or the economy or growth or the environment Such traditionalism leads to radical questions however Should cities have police and fire departments Should tax preferences for home ownership be repealed Should public schools charge for their services O Flaherty also gives serious consideration to such heterodox policies as pay at the pump auto insurance curb rights for buses land taxes marginal cost water pricing and sidewalk zoning
