The New Poetry Harriet Monroe, Alice Corbin Henderson, 1917      The New Poets Macha Louis Rosenthal, 1967 Critical study of major poets      The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets

The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry The New American Poetry and Cold War Nationalism Stephan Delbos, 2021-08-20 This book examines Donald M Allen's crucially influential poetry anthology The New American Poetry 1945-1960 from the perspectives of American Cold War nationalism and literary transnationalism considering how the anthology expresses and challenges Cold War norms claiming post war Anglophone poetic innovation for the United States and reflecting the conservative American society of the 1950s Examining the crossroads of politics social life and literature during the Cold War this book puts Allen's anthology into its historical context and reveals how the editor was influenced by the volatile climate of nationalism and politics that pervaded every aspect of American life during the Cold War Reconsidering the dramatic influence that Allen's anthology has had on the way we think about and anthologize American poetry and recontextualizing The New American Poetry as a document of the Cold War this study not only helps us come to a more accurate understanding of how the anthology came into being but also encourages new ways of thinking about all of Anglophone poetry from the twentieth century and today

The New Young American Poets Kevin Prufer, 2000 An anthology of poems written by forty poets born after 1960 An Anthology of the New England Poets from Colonial Times to the Present Day Louis Untermeyer, 1948

The New Poetry Mary Prescott Parsons, 1919 American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray, Mary McAleer Balkun, James McCorkle, 2015-03-10 The ethnically diverse scope broad chronological coverage and mix of biographical critical historical political and cultural entries make this the most useful and exciting poetry reference of its kind for students today American poetry springs up out of all walks of life its poems are maternal as well as paternal stuff d with the stuff that is coarse and stuff d with the stuff that is fine as Walt Whitman wrote adding Of every hue and caste am I of every rank and religion Written for high school and undergraduate students this two volume encyclopedia covers U S poetry from the Colonial era to the present offering full treatments of hundreds of key poets of the American canon What sets this reference apart is that it also discusses events movements schools and poetic approaches placing poets in their social historical political cultural and critical contexts and showing how their works mirror the eras in which they were written Readers will learn about surrealism ekphrastic poetry pastoral elegy the Black Mountain poets and language poetry There are long and rich entries on modernism and postmodernism as well as entries related to the formal and technical dimensions of American poetry Particular attention is paid to women poets and poets from various ethnic groups Poets such as Amiri Baraka Nathaniel Mackey Natasha Trethewey and Tracy Smith are featured The encyclopedia also contains entries on a wide selection of Latino and Native American poets and substantial coverage of the avant garde and experimental movements and provides sidebars that illuminate key points The New Poets Alison Stilwell Cameron,1967 Anthologies of British Poetry,2021-11-22 From Tottel s Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web Poetry and Drama Part-III Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-11-23 In this book we will study about specialized genres in poetry and drama including postcolonial feminist and experimental texts Harry Kemp, the Last Bohemian William Brevda,1986 The first critical biography of the American writer The Tramp Poet Harry Kemp 1883 1960 His creative works included poetry drama fiction and the best selling autobiography in prose Tramping on Life The New York Times Index ,1923 The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene,Stephen Cushman,Clare Cavanagh,Jahan Ramazani,Paul Rouzer,Harris Feinsod,David Marno,Alexandra Slessarev,2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei Tian Jin,2020-10-06 This book examines the unique poetics of Shao Xunmei 1906 1968 a Chinese poet who has long been marginalized by contemporary criticism Shao aspires to reach the condition of music in poetry which bears a resemblance to three Anglophone writers whom he applauds Algernon Charles Swinburne Edith Sitwell and George Augustus Moore The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei investigates how these three writers influenced Shao and how this inspiration helped shape his idea of the condition of music in poetry In the scope of world literature this book aims to fill a small but important puzzle piece in the global network of literary influence In a world where cultural exchanges have become increasingly frequent and convenient and at a time when counter globalization seems to burgeon into a hazardous trend it is beneficial to look back to the 1920s 1930s a time that is as equally tumultuous as today to examine the global influence network that has taken us where we are and to understand that in the dynamic of literary influence no single piece of literature can have its significance alone This groundbreaking book will benefit the scholarship of Shao and contribute to the relevant research in Chinese studies and word and music studies Therefore it will be of great use and interest to researchers of comparative literature Chinese literature and world literature as well as scholars of word and music studies     Essays on Poetry Ralph J. Mills,2003 Taken from throughout Mills s career the essays collected in this volume delve into the work of such influential writers as Wallace Stevens Denise Levertov Samuel Beckett Galway Kinnell Edith Sitwell Theodore Roethke Karl Shapiro Richard Wilbur Isabella Gardener James Wright David Ignatow Donald Hall Robert Bly Philip Levine and Stanley Kunitz Mills examines how the personal element informs the works of these writers and enables them to speak to us without impediment from the deep center of a personal engagement with existence     The Poetry of the Americas Harris Feinsod,2017 The Poetry of the Americas provides an expansive history of relations between poets in the US and Latin America over three decades from the Good Neighbor diplomacy of World War II to 1960s Cold War cultural policy
