Grelsamer,2010-09-01 Into the Sky With Diamonds captures the excitement of the 1960s as it recounts the history of the Beatles and the U S Soviet Race to the Moon Beatle and Apollo Space enthusiasts old and new will discover riveting behind the scenes anecdotes while the not yet enthused discover what they ve been missing Join fictional NASA communication specialist Dutch Richtman and the very real Beatle roadie Mal Evans as they navigate the turbulence of the American Space program and the eye popping ride of the Beatles Roll up for the tour Sleights of Hand Bradford Morrow,2016-02-23 Essays fiction and poetry reflecting on truth and illusion in a world filled with deceptions both treacherous and benign Children deceive as do grownups and many are the moments when all of us even deceive ourselves People of every age and stripe whether rarely or often dissimulate bluff and beguile The writer who fabricates and populates worlds is a deceiver as is the artist whose triumph is to trick the eye to alter perception The honest magician s livelihood is based on deception so is the dishonest thief s And consider the great Russian poet Marina Tsvetaeva who wrote A deception that elevates us is dearer than a legion of low truths thus complicating the subject entirely This special issue of Conjunctions gathers a wide spectrum of essays fiction and poetry on the classic subject of deception exploring in original and thought provoking ways a world in which truth is a most fragile elaborate and mercurial thing Contributors include Edie Meidav Terese Svoboda Yannick Murphy Paul Hoover Bim Ramke Eleni Sikelianos Magdalena Zyzak and many others The Searsport Chicken Murders in Paperback Ken Eulie,2012-12-21 Ken

McAllister thought he would take his mid life job termination as a blessing in disguise and spend a quiet summer at his bayside cottage regrouping. Some hikes with Ray, dinner and a movie with Jim, and beach walks with Shorty the Wonder Dog. He might even get the motivation to look for another job. But that quiet summer by the sea turned into a murder mystery to unravel before more people die, including Ken himself. With the help of his charming high society wife Bunny Lips and a lobster boatload of fascinating midcoast characters, Ken tries to find the culprit who is terrorizing his sleepy fishing village. Could it be Clyde, his handyman's chicken, who has gotten too smart for his own good? Ken McAllister, technical illustrator, is on the case and will hopefully cut to the chase before a band saw cuts through him. Paperback L.A. Book 2 Susan LaTempa, 2018-10-30. Paperback LA Book 2 continues the engaging Casual Anthology series with genre crossing writing gems, vibrant photo essays, and more. Memoirs, magazine articles, and magic realism all make an appearance. Contributors include Baby Peggy on Hollywood, Ray Bradbury on Venice Beach, Karen Tei Yamashita on freeways, Preston Lerner on auto racing, Naomi Hirahara on Terminal Island, Gina B. Nahai on the Persian Jewish diaspora, Ann Summa on urban cyclists, and Hartmut Walter on shorebirds. New York Magazine, 1982-12-06. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Using the Internet Jerry Honeycutt, 1997. Completely revamped and rewritten. Using the Internet 3rd Ed gives thorough coverage of the core Internet topics such as the Web and e-mail. Other topics include online security troubleshooting and keeping kids safe on the Net. The book gives up to date information on the latest tools and technologies for all versions of Windows. Into the Sky with Diamonds Ronald P. Grelsamer, 2010-09-03. One small step for a man, one giant leap for music. The Beatles and the Race to the Moon were the DNA of the 1960s. Two adventurous threads continuously intertwined from 1960 to 1970. Into the Sky is a scholarly book masquerading as fast moving historical fiction. From Flurry of Notes. One of the best books I read last year was Into the Sky with Diamonds. RG has written a book that everyone with a love for the Beatles, the Race to the Moon, or the 60s must read. It's detailed but not boring, familiar but not stale. RG breathes new life and perspective to an entire decade in a joyful and enlightening way and sheds new light and insight into a time that shook the world. I guarantee you'll wish both the book and the Beatles never stopped. From Amazon. I totally enjoyed reading this book. I highly recommend it for both people who were around to experience the events that occurred in the 60s and for the younger generation who will enjoy learning about an era of history that has had a huge impact. This is one of the most fascinating books I have read in over 20 years. It is an absolute MUST READ for anyone interested in musical legend, the Beatles, and the origins, failed attempts, and success of our Moon Mission. Forbes FYI, 1999. The Making of Consumer Law and Policy in Europe Hans-W. Micklitz, 2021-11-04. This book analyses the founding years of consumer law and consumer policy in Europe It combines two dimensions the making of national consumer law and the making of European consumer law and how both are intertwined The chapters on Germany Italy the Nordic countries and the United Kingdom serve to explain the economic and the political background which led to different legal and policy approaches in the then old Member States from the 1960s onwards The chapter on Poland adds a different layer the one of a former socialist country with its own consumer law and how joining the EU affected consumer law at the national level The making of European consumer law started in the 1970s rather cautiously but gradually the European Commission took an ever stronger position in promoting not only European consumer law but also in supporting the building of the European Consumer Organisation BEUC the umbrella organisation of the national consumer bodies The book unites the early protagonists who were involved in the making of consumer law in Europe Guido Alpa Ludwig Kr mer Ewa Letowska Hans W Micklitz Klaus Tonner Iain Ramsay and Thomas Wilhelmsson supported by the younger generation Aneta Wiewi rowska Domagalska Mateusz Grochowski and Koen Docter who reconstructs the history of BEUC Niklas Olsen and Thomas Roethe analyse the construction of this policy field from a historical and sociological perspective This book offers a unique opportunity to understand a legal and political field that of consumer law and policy which plays a fundamental role in our contemporary societies

Day, 2025-03-17 Let me tell you something about grief that might surprise you sometimes it makes you laugh when you least expect it After losing Ellen my wife and best friend of 47 years I discovered that the journey through loss isn t just a somber march through sadness It s a wildly unpredictable road with moments that will have you crying one minute and laughing out loud the next much like our marriage itself This memoir isn t what you might expect Yes it explores the crater that loss leaves in your life when someone you ve loved for nearly five decades is suddenly gone But it s also filled with the kind of stories I d share if we were sipping coffee while reminiscing about the woman who could make me fall in love with her all over again every time she d flash her perfect smile You ll read about the time Ellen and I tried to figure out why I d jump when we were preparing meals together If she turned toward me with a knife in hand I reacted as if she was ready to slice me up A believer in reincarnation Ellen said she must have put me down in a past marriage for something I d said or done I also share many other funny everyday moments that seemed ordinary then but reveal themselves now as the true treasures they were For five years I ve been writing this book often with a cup of coffee gone cold beside me as I lost myself in memories The writing has been therapy my way of making sense of an Ellen less world I never planned to inhabit A Unique Collaborative Approach What makes this memoir particularly unique is its multidimensional approach to storytelling Under my creative direction I utilized AI technology to help me explore grief through different literary voices With my concepts memories and extensive notes as foundation I guided this collaborative process to create something that goes beyond traditional memoir boundaries This approach helped me craft letters journal entries poems and reflective essays that complement my personal narrative while maintaining my authentic voice throughout Together with this technological assistance I ve woven a tapestry that explores grief from multiple perspectives You ll find letters and journal entries inspired by the distinctive styles of authors like Hemingway Twain and Henry James as well as the unmistakable voices of fictional characters The philosophical dimensions of loss are explored through writings influenced by Henri Bergson Carl Jung Baruch Spinoza and even Albert Einstein The poetic section draws on the spirits of Shakespeare Dickinson Whitman Frost and Plath offering different lenses through which to view profound loss Even the wisdom of spiritual thinkers like Soto Zen Buddhist D gen Zenji and Native American shaman Black Elk finds its way into these pages This approach allowed me to step outside my own grief occasionally to see it reflected and refracted through different minds and sensibilities The result is a memoir that honors not just my journey and Ellen s memory but the universal human experience of loving and losing that writers and thinkers have grappled with throughout history An Invitation I m not a grief expert or a self help guru I m just a paperback writer who loved deeply lost profoundly and somehow found my way to a new normal with wrong turns awkward moments and unexpected discoveries along the way If you ve ever loved someone lost someone or simply want to understand what that journey looks like from the inside this memoir might be for you I ve written it as if I m telling these stories directly to a dear friend I hope you ll take this journey with me I promise it won t all be sad Ellen would have hated that Hugs Chet Day
