People's Republic adapted Chinese literature for the screen incorporated Hollywood narration appropriated Soviet montage theory and orchestrated a new glamorous socialist star culture In the wake of decolonisation Chinese film journals were quick to project and disseminate the country's redefined self image to Asia Africa and Latin America as they helped to create an alternative vision of modernity and internationalism Revealing the historical contingency of the term propaganda Chan uncovers the visual aural kinaesthetic sexual and ideological dynamics that gave rise to a new aesthetic of revolutionary heroism in world cinema Based on extensive archival research this book's focus on the distinctive rhetoric of post war socialist China will be of value to East Asian Cinema scholars Chinese Studies academics and those interested in the history of twentieth century socialist culture

Finding Women in the State Wang Zheng, 2016-11-01 Finding Women in the State is a provocative hidden history of socialist state feminists maneuvering behind the scenes at the core of the Chinese Communist Party These women worked to advance gender and class equality in the early People's Republic and fought to transform sexist norms and practices all while facing fierce opposition from a male dominated CCP leadership from the Party Central to the local government Wang Zheng extends this investigation to the cultural realm showing how feminists within China's film industry were working to actively create new cinematic heroines and how they continued a New Culture anti patriarchy heritage in socialist film production This book illuminates not only the different visions of revolutionary transformation but also the dense entanglements among those in the top echelon of the party Wang discusses the causes for failure of China's socialist revolution and raises fundamental questions about male dominance in social movements that aim to pursue social justice and equality This is the first book engendering the PRC high politics and has important theoretical and methodological implications for scholars and students working in gender studies as well as China studies

China on Screen Chris Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation

Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis Gender, Discourse and the Self in Literature Kwok-kan Tam, Terry Siu-han Yip, 2010 Critiquing the fictive nature of socially accepted values about gender the authors unravel the strategies adopted by writers and filmmakers in de constructing the gendered self in mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong NLT Daily Reader's Bible Tyndale, 2020-11-03 The Daily Reader's Bible offers the promise of reading the entire Bible in one year But rather than providing a canonical progression through the Old Testament the New Testament Psalms and Proverbs each day's reading includes three passages one selected from the Stories of the Bible another from the Teachings of the Bible and the final passage selected from the Wisdom of the Bible The three readings for each day flow from the day's theme This thematic approach to devotional Bible reading helps the reader understand how all the genres of Scripture fit together to convey God's truth The innovative interior design gives the reader visual cues for which of the three Scripture types they are reading through layout and font selection The Story is presented in a three column format in sans serif font The Teachings are presented in a two column setting in a serif font Wisdom is presented in a one column setting to preserve the feel of the poetic passages See the beautiful thematic connections of God's story throughout the new Daily Reader's Bible For the first time you can discover these links as part of your daily devotional and Bible reading EASY The entire text of the Bible is uniquely arranged for daily reading that can be completed in as little as 15 minutes per day Each daily reading is numbered so you can start anytime FRESH The Daily Reader's Bible will help you understand the connections between the Story Teaching and Wisdom portions of Scripture CLEAR The NLT is the trusted Bible translation you can most comfortably read understand and actively apply to your life Afterlives of Letters Satoru Hashimoto, 2023-10-24 Honorable Mention 2024 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for East Asian Studies Modern Language Association When East Asia opened itself to the world in the nineteenth century Chinese Japanese and Korean intellectuals had shared notions of literature because of the centuries long cultural exchanges in the region As modernization profoundly destabilized cultural norms they ventured to create new literature for the new era Satoru Hashimoto offers a novel way of understanding the origins of modern literature in a transregional context drawing on Chinese Japanese and Korean language texts in both classical and vernacular forms He argues that modern literature came into being in East Asia through writerly attempts at reconstructing the present's historical relationship to the past across the cultural transformations caused by modernization Hashimoto examines writers' anachronistic engagement with past cultures deemed obsolete or antithetical to new systems of values showing that this transnational process was integral to the emergence of modern literature A groundbreaking cross cultural excavation of the origins of modern literature in East Asia featuring remarkable linguistic scope Afterlives of Letters bridges Asian studies and comparative literature and delivers a remapping of world literature
