

Ways on How to make Family Members Firmer and Gentler with each Other:

Foster Unity.

There is unity in the family despite the differences in personalities and characteristics of each member by doing its specific roles in the family. Promote unity in the family by building a bond among the members

Involve each other.

Every member of the family is important. Include them in significant decision-making in family life.

Respect Individuality

Give higher regard by appreciating the uniqueness of every family, knowing that everyone has its identity, strengths, and weaknesses

Model the Behavior

Everyone in the family could be a model for each other. Modeling behavior is setting yourself as an example that is worth following to other members of the family
