The Newcomers Inhabiting A New Land:

The Newcomers Timothy Findley, Charles E. Israel, 1979 Based on the seven one hour motion pictures commissioned by Imperial Oil Limited to celebrate its one hundredth anniversary and viewed by millions on the CBS television network Dust jacket

The Newcomers Timothy Findley, 1979 Canada Máire Áine Ní Mhainnín, Elizabeth Tilley, 2009-05-05 The essays in this volume are expanded versions of papers that were first presented at the 13th Biennial Conference XIII me Congr s biennal of the Association for Canadian Studies in Ireland held at the National University of Ireland Galway in 2006 The theme of the Conference was Canada at Home and Abroad Text and Territory Le Canada et ses relations d ici de l et de l bas The papers debate issues surrounding literature language and language acquisition immigration emigration and culture in Canada Ireland and in Europe as a whole From an examination of the place of hockey in the Canadian literary consciousness to mapping minority language visibility in officially bilingual cities the focus here is on ways of exploring culture understood in its widest sense

A Multimodal Stylistic Approach to Screen Adaptations of the Work of Alice Munro Sabrina Francesconi, 2022-12-27 This volume brings together perspectives from multimodal stylistics and adaptation studies for a unified theoretical analysis of adaptations of the work of Alice Munro demonstrating the affordances of the approach in furthering interdisciplinary research at the intersection of these fields The book considers films and television programmes as complex multimodal stylistic systems in and of themselves in order to pave the way for a clearer understanding of screen adaptations as expressions of modal medial and aesthetic change In focusing on Munro Francesconi draws attention to a writer whose body of work has been adapted widely across television and film for an international market over several decades offering a diachronic overview and insights into the confluence of socio cultural contexts audiences and dynamics of production and distribution across adaptations The volume complements this perspective with a microanalysis of the adaptations themselves exploring the varied creative use of audio visual dimensions including sound light and movement The book seeks to overcome simplified fidelity based understandings of screen adaptations more broadly showcasing creative multi layered approaches to a creator s oeuvre to effect true transformation across media and modes The volume will be of interest to scholars in multimodality adaptation studies film studies and comparative literature

Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world s great authors Alice Munro which shows how her life and her stories intertwine For almost thirty years Robert Thacker has been researching this book steeping himself in Alice Munro s life and work working with her co operation to make it complete The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro s admirers everywhere By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro s life and Alice Munro s texts he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work There is always a starting point in reality she once said of her stories and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life The book is chronological starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham Then all of her life stages the marriage to Jim Munro the move to Vancouver then to Victoria to start the bookstore the three daughters the divorce the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin leading to the triumphs as story by story book by book she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate Tiff Sherrill

Grace,2020-08-25 Timothy Findley 1930 2002 was one of Canada's foremost writers an award winning novelist playwright and short story writer who began his career as an actor in London England Findley was instrumental in the development of Canadian literature and publishing in the 1970s and 80s During those years he became a vocal advocate for human rights and the anti war movement His writing and interviews reveal a man concerned with the state of the world a man who believed in the importance of not giving in to despair despite his constant struggle with depression Findley believed in the power of imagination and creativity to save us Tiff A Life of Timothy Findley is the first full biography of this eminent Canadian writer Sherrill Grace provides insight into Findley's life and struggles through an exploration of his private journals and his relationships with family his beloved partner Bill Whitehead and his close friends including Alec Guinness William Hutt and Margaret Laurence Based on many interviews and exhaustive archival research this biography explores Findley's life and work the issues that consumed him and his often profound depression over the evils of the twentieth century Shining through his darkness are Findley's generous humour his unforgettable characters and his hope for the future These qualities inform canonic works like The Wars 1977 Famous Last Words 1981 Not Wanted on the Voyage 1984 and The Piano Man's Daughter 1995 Alice Munro Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on the works of Alice Munro

Context North America Camille La Bossière,1994-01-01 Context North America is a comparative study of Canadian and American literary relations that emphasizes the cultural and institutional contexts in which Canadian literature is taught and read This volume exemplifies the question of how the literatures of Canada might aptly be studied and contextualized in the days of heightened discontinuity and increasingly ambiguous borderlines both between and within the many narratives that make up North America Literary Theory Julie Rivkin,Michael Ryan,2017-02-06 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms Alice Munro's Late Style Robert Thacker,2023-11-30 Focusing on Alice Munro's last three collections this book examines the differences between these volumes and the rest of her work to analyse the emergence and the difference of her late style Alice Munro has effectively reshaped the short story as a form This book focuses on Munro's art of recursion an approach that has been evident throughout her career but came to the fore in her last three books The View from Castle Rock 2006 Too Much Happiness 2009 and especially Dear Life 2012 This recursion and return manifest themselves not only in Munro's return to previously published pieces but also to her discovery and meditations on her Scottish heritage which can be read as entrance to her own understanding of herself and her life Its provenance displayed through archival evidence is complex yet reveals a writer intent on a precise late style Munro s final works serve as a coda to both her late style and to her entire career as arguably one of the finest short story writers ever to put pen to paper Yarmarok IꞑUꞑrii Klynovyĭ,1987 Canadian Books for Young People/Livres canadiens pour la jeunesse, 3e Irma McDonough,1980-12-15 This third completely revised edition contains hundreds of new entries for a total of almost 2 000 children s books and magazines carefully selected and described by a team of children s librarians Entries are arranged by subject with reading levels indicated where necessary and are also listed in a separate author title index A list of prize winning Canadian children s books and a basic book list for librarians teachers and parents are included in this charmingly illustrated volume The Alice Munro Papers, First Accession University of Calgary. Libraries. Special Collections Division,Jean M. Moore,Jean Tener,Apollonia Steele,1986 Alice Munro was born in 1931 in Wingham Ontario After attending the University of Western Ontario she moved to the west coast She now lives in Clinton Ontario Her short stories have been read on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and published in many anthologies She publishes in a variety of Canadian and American magazines including regular contributions to the New Yorker This highly gifted writer won the Governor General s Award for her 1968 collection of short stories Dance of the Happy Shades In 1972 her Lives of Girls and Women was winner of the Canadian Booksellers Association International Book Year Award and a section of this novel was produced in the CBC Performance series In 1977 she was the first Canadian to be awarded the Canada Australia Literary Prize Her other publications include Something I ve Been Meaning to Tell You 1974 and Who Do You Think You Are 1978 the latter winning for Munro her second Governor General s Award Faces of a Reservation Cynthia D. Stowell,1987 An attractive and perceptive photographic and historical view of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation in central Oregon 11x11 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Rest of the Story Robert Thacker,1999 Leading critics explore the myriad connections informing Canadian author Munro s deceptively simple tales Timothy Findley Carol Roberts,Lynne Macdonald,1990 A writer of international reputation Timothy Findley s career encompasses successes in theatre film television radio and works of literature that have been translated into many languages and have received wide acclaim A Wolf in the Garden Philip D. Brick,R. McGregor Cawley,1996 Debates concerning the federal role in regulating industry and in managing the nation s public lands are becoming increasingly contentious This is in part due to the rise of well organized and ideologically energized land rights movements that have vowed to resist expansion of environmental regulations and even to roll back existing environmental statutes A Wolf in the Garden is the only book available that assembles the arguments of key thinkers in the land rights and the environmental movements The broad range of essays in this collection unveils hidden dimensions of the debate and explores opportunities for the environmental movement to revitalize itself by taking advantage of recent changes in the political landscape

Divided Highways Tom Lewis, 2013-04-19 Lewis describes in a convincing lively and well documented narrative the evolution of America's roadway system from one of the world's worst road networks to its best John Pucher Journal of the American Planning Association In Divided Highways Tom Lewis offers an encompassing account of highway development in the United States In the early twentieth century Congress created the Bureau of Public Roads to improve roads and the lives of rural Americans The Bureau was the forerunner of the Interstate Highway System of 1956 which promoted a technocratic approach to modern road building sometimes at the expense of individual lives regional characteristics and the landscape With thoughtful analysis and engaging prose Lewis charts the development of the Interstate system including the demographic and economic pressures that influenced its planning and construction and the disputes that pitted individuals and local communities against engineers and federal administrators This is a story of America's hopes for its future life and the realities of its present condition Originally published in 1997 this book is an engaging history of the people and policies that profoundly transformed the American landscape and the daily lives of Americans In this updated edition of Divided Highways Lewis brings his story of the Interstate system up to date concluding with Boston's troubled and yet triumphant Big Dig project the growing antipathy for big federal infrastructure projects and the uncertain economics of highway projects both present and future Anyone who has ever driven on a U.S. interstate highway or eaten at an exit ramp McDonald's will come away from this book with a better understanding of what makes modern America what it is Chicago Tribune A fascinating work with a subject central to contemporary life but to which few if any have devoted so much thoughtful analysis and good humor Minneapolis Star Tribune Divided Highways is the best and most important book yet published about how asphalt and concrete have changed the United States Quite simply the Interstate Highway System is the longest and largest engineered structure in the history of the world and it has enormously influenced every aspect of American life Tom Lewis is an engaging prose stylist with a gift for the telling anecdote and appropriate example Kenneth T Jackson Harvard Design Magazine Lewis provides a comprehensive and balanced examination of America's century long infatuation with the automobile and the insatiable demands for more and better road systems He has written a sprightly and richly documented book on a vital subject Richard O Davies Journal of American History This brightly written history of the U.S. federal highway program is like the annual report of a successful company that has had grim second thoughts The first half recounts progress made while the second suggests that the good news is not quite what it seems Publishers Weekly Lewis is a very talented and engaging writer and the tale he tells the vision for the Interstates Congressional battles construction and the impact of new highways on American life is important to understanding the shape of the contemporary American landscape David Schuyler Arthur and Katherine Shadek Professor of the Humanities and American Studies at Franklin Marshall College author of Sanctified Landscape Writers Artists and the Hudson River Valley 1820-1909 Canadiana, 1980 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 1980 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual
