History and Present Condition of the Newspaper and Periodical Press of the United States Simon Newton Dexter North, 1884 The Kentucky Press, 1961 Census Reports Tenth Census: The newspaper and periodical press United States. Census Office, 1884 History and present condition of the newspaper and periodical press of the United States, with a catalogue of the publications of the census year, by S.N.D. North United States census office, 1884 Divide and Dissent John Ed Pearce, 2014-07-11 Few men have been more important to the life of Kentucky than three of those who governed it between 1930 and 1963 Albert B Chandler Earle C Clements and Bert T Combs While reams of newspaper copy have been written about them the historical record offers little to mark their roles in the drama of Kentucky and the nation In this authoritative and sometimes intimate view of Bluegrass State politics and government at ground level John Ed Pearce one of Kentucky's favorite writers helps fill this gap In half a century as a close observer of Kentucky politics as reporter editorial writer and columnist for the Louisville Courier Journal Pearce has seen the full spectacle He watched Happy Chandler vault into national prominence with his flamboyant campaign style He was shaken by Earle Clements for asking an awkward question He joined in the laughter when a striptease artist was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel during the Combs administration And he watched as the successive governors struggled to move the state forward each in his own way Yet this is more than a newsman's account of events Pearce probes for the roots of the troubles that have slowed Kentucky's progress He traces the divisions that have plagued the state for almost two centuries divisions springing from the nature of Kentucky's beginnings He studies the lack of leadership that has hampered the always dominant Democratic party and the bitter factionalism that has kept the party from developing a cohesive philosophy When the candidate of one faction has taken office he shows the losing faction has usually made political hay by bolting to the opposition party or torpedoing the governor's efforts in the legislature instead of uniting behind a progressive party program The outcome of such long term factionalism is a state that must now run fast to catch up
