Abraka Humanities Review ,2007      A Handbook of Nigerian Culture Nigeria. Federal Ministry of Information and Culture,1992      The Palgrave Handbook of African Education and Indigenous Knowledge Jamaine M. Abidogun,Toyin Falola,2020-06-02 This handbook explores the evolution of African education in historical perspectives as well as the development within its three systems Indigenous Islamic and Western education models and how African societies have maintained and changed their approaches to education within and across these systems African education continues to find itself at once preserving its knowledge while integrating Islamic and Western aspects in order to compete within this global reality Contributors take up issues and themes of the positioning resistance accommodation and transformations of indigenous education in relationship to the introduction of Islamic and later Western education Issues and themes raised acknowledge the contemporary development and positioning of indigenous education within African societies and provide understanding of how indigenous education works within individual societies and national frameworks as an essential part of African contemporary society      The Oxford Handbook of W. E. B. Du Bois Aldon D. Morris,Michael Schwartz,Cheryl Johnson-Odim,Walter R Allen,Marcus Anthony Hunter,Karida L Brown,Dan S Green,2024 The wide ranging work of W E B Du Bois critical to understanding the role that race has played in creating the modern world we find around us mostly has been ignored or hidden from sociological researchers until after the civil rights movement in the U S As a result one of the key goals of The Oxford Handbook of W E B Du Bois is to reclaim Du Bois from those efforts to marginalize his thought The chapters of this volume explore in a comprehensive manner all aspects of Du Boisian sociology It is organized into ten thematic sections Social Theory Change and Agency Sociology Social Science Humanities Public Intellectual Women and

Gender Studies Methodologies and Archival Resources Black Interiority and Whiteness Color Line Empire Marxism and War Talented Tenth and Black Colleges and Universities Black Community Religion Crime and Wealth Internationalism Pan Africanism and Anti Colonialism

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 The last two decades have seen the emergence of a new field of academic study that examines the interaction between religion and ecology Theologians from every religious tradition have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature and acknowledged their own faiths complicity in the environmental crisis Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the books essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part one will explore traditional religious concepts of and attitudes towards nature and how these have been changed by the environmental crisis Part II looks at larger conceptual issues that transcend individual traditions Part III will examine religious participation in environmental politics

Routledge Handbook of Islam in Africa Terje Østebø, 2021-12-20 Bringing together cutting edge research from a range of disciplines this handbook argues that despite often being overlooked or treated as marginal the study of Islam from an African context is integral to the broader Muslim world Challenging the portrayal of African Muslims as passive recipients of religious impetuses arriving from the outside this book shows how the continent has been a site for the development of rich Islamic scholarship and religious discourses Over the course of the book the contributors reflect on The history and infrastructure of Islam in Africa Politics and Islamic reform Gender youth and everyday life for African Muslims New technologies media and popular culture Written by leading scholars in the field the contributions examine the connections between Islam and broader sociopolitical developments across the continent demonstrating the important role of religion in the everyday lives of Africans This book is an important and timely contribution to a subject that is often diffusely studied and will be of interest to researchers across religious studies African studies politics and sociology

Contemporary Critical Thought in Africology and Africana Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Clyde Ledbetter Jr., 2015-12-30 Although traditional academic circles rarely celebrate the work of African or African American thinkers because performers and political figures were more acceptable to narrating histories this work projects the ideas of several writers with the confidence that Africology the Afrocentric study of African phenomena represents an oasis of innovation in progressive venues The book brings together some of the most discussed theorists and intellectuals in the field of Africology Africana Studies for the purpose of sparking further debate critical interpretations and extensions and to reform and reformulate the way we approach our critical thought The contributors Afrocentric approach offers new interpretations and analysis and challenges the predominant frameworks in diverse areas such as philosophy social justice literature and history
