The Night He Was Betrayed Bible Studies In Our Lords Preparation For His:

The Night He was Betrayed Reginald Ernest Oscar White, 1982 Love of Friendship in the Christian Life Jonathan Sammut, 2019-12-27 Theological reflection on friendship as a particular form of Christian love emerges in Holy Scripture and continues to be elaborated in the Christian tradition However love of friendship was at times absorbed into the other traditional understanding of love love of God and of neighbor After a philosophical historical study of the Greco Roman roots of friendship in moral reflection and how and to what extent this was appropriated in the Christian tradition this book illustrates the transcendental character and the novelty of the Christian understanding of friendship found in Holy Scripture focusing particularly on the most relevant texts in the Fourth Gospel where love and friendship stand to be important themes It also shows how Saint Thomas Aquinas through his exegesis of the Fourth Gospel his synthesis of the Christian tradition and his ability to rearticulate Christian theology through Aristotelian philosophy inimitably defines the theological virtue of caritas as friendship with God In so doing he depicts friendship as the finality the telos of the Christian life Finally the book aims to show how the retrieval of a proper theology of friendship rooted in Holy Scripture and Christian tradition can enrich the life of an authentic Christian and contribute to the ongoing process of renewing moral theology The Night He Was Betrayed Reginald Ernest Oscar White, New Testament Abstracts ,1983 Notes, Explanatory and Practical, on the Gospels Albert Barnes, 1858 Echoes of Friendship in the Gospel of John Martin M. Culy, 2010 Friendship in the Graeco Roman world took a wide variety of forms with some friendships involving nothing more than a political alliance or patron client relationship and others involving deep personal intimacy When Jesus says his disciples are to be called friends what type of friendship does he have in mind Friendship may seem a relatively insignificant motif in the Gospel of John since the author does not explicitly set out to provide a philosophical discourse on the nature of friendship nor does he explicitly state that the narrative is about friendship In this study however Culy having carefully examined Graeco Roman literature on friendship demonstrates that the language of what he calls ideal friendship actually pervades the Fourth Gospel from beginning to end and serves as a primary vehicle for characterizing the relationships that are introduced in the Prologue and fleshed out throughout the course of the narrative Taking up the friendship motif as a tool of characterization the Gospel of John points to a striking implication of the life death and resurrection of Jesus that followers of Jesus are invited to enjoy a level of intimacy with him that can actually and perhaps only be compared to the level of intimacy that he enjoys with the Father The Johannine Jesus then came not just to save the world but also to offer those who would follow him a relationship that Graeco Roman philosophers only dreamed of a relationship where all the ingredients of ideal friendship were present

The Living Church, 1921 That You Might Believe - Study on the Gospel of John Robert L. Deffinbaugh, 2002 There are certain books of the Bible that just seem to stand out and the Gospel of John is surely one such book It is frequently the first book of the Bible we encourage non Christians to read in the hope that its message will lead them to faith in Christ After all that is the purpose of the book See John 20:31 For Christians the Gospel of John is a source of much truth about our Lord and the Gospel But it is much more than that It is an opportunity for us to follow Him as we read and to identify with the disciples as their knowledge of Him continues to expand It is our opportunity to get to know the heart of the Savior and to fellowship with Him through His Word If men of old found their hearts set on fire as they listened to Him teach in person Luke 24:32 so we will find our hearts warmed as we seek to listen to Him through this Gospel I challenge you to join me in making the Gospel of John the subject of your study May God use it to help you see and serve Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world John 1:29 The Churchman, 1878 The Gospel according to st.
