behaviour Drawing from scholarship across a range of disciplines the Subcultures Network explore how sex and sexuality were experienced presented conferred responded to and understood within the context of youth culture popular music and social change in the period between World War Two and the advent of AIDS The essays locate sex music and youth culture in the context of post war Britain with a widening and ever more prevalent media amidst the loosening bonds of censorship in a society shaped by changing patterns of consumption and the emergence of the teenager existing as Jeff Nuttall famously argued under the shadow of the nuclear bomb

Gently Into The Night Harrison Lee Rodebaugh, 2010-06-28 Kolchak: the Night Stalker Kendall R. Phillips, 2022-08-16 Revisiting a televised narrative that focused not on the monster but on the monster hunter Before Buffy the Vampire Slayer or The X Files there was Carl Kolchak a world weary Chicago newspaper reporter with a cheap seersucker suit and a penchant for uncovering monsters lurking in every corner Kolchak first appeared on American screens in the 1972 ABC television movie The Night Stalker which was then the most watched television movie in history The success of this initial offering led to a sequel The Night Strangler and a television series Kolchak: The Night Stalker that ran from 1974 until 1975 By carefully focusing on the historical and artistic contexts in which it emerged Kendall R Phillips offers insights into the way the series both reflected contemporary horror narratives and changed them Ultimately the series proved influential for later television horror shows based not only on what it did right but on the mistakes future creators would learn to avoid The enduring impact of the series on current television horror continues to draw more and more individuals into its robust fanbase and these fans continue to consume and create new narratives of their favorite monster hunting reporter even fifty years after he first appeared Fires In The Night Fritz Molden, 2019-04-10 This book is a factual account by a man who witnessed some of the events occurred between 1938 1945 It aims to commemorate the tens of thousands of men and women who gave their lives for Austria and for the victory of humaneness justice and freedom over the bestial Nazi tyranny
