massacre      The Nanjing Massacre and Sino-Japanese Relations Zhaoqi Cheng, 2020-10-17 Based on extensive research on the International Military Tribunal for the Far East this book closely examines the claims and controversy surrounding the Nanjing Massacre a period of murder in 1937 1938 committed by Japanese troops against the residents of Nanjing Nanking after the capture of the then capital of the Republic of China during the Second Sino Japanese War Focusing on weighing up arguments denying Nanjing Massacre this book considers the Japanese Illusion school of thought which contests the truth of the Nanjing Massacre claims including the death toll and the scale of the violence The Nanjing Massacre remains a controversial issue in Sino Japanese relations despite the normalization of bilateral relations and this book goes to great lengths to examine the events through comparative narratives investigating different perspectives and contributing to the debate from the extensive research of the Tokyo Trial Research Centre at Shanghai as well as volumes of Chinese and Japanese historical documents      The Nanjing Massacre and the Making of Mediated Trauma Hongtao Li, Shunming Huang, 2021-08-24 Drawing on cultural trauma theory this book investigates how collective memory of the Nanjing Massacre is fashioned in China and how the mass media political power and public praxis jointly shape the politics and culture of memory in contemporary China Allowing for the dimensions of history and different mediating spaces the authors first conduct textual analysis of news reports from traditional media since the event took place revealing that the significance of the Massacre was initially portrayed as a local incident before its construction as a national trauma and finally a collective memory In a study of physical and online memorial spaces including the Memorial Hall commemorative activities on the Internet and new media platforms the book unveils the production and reproduction of trauma narratives as well as how these narratives have been challenged The final part further studies the interactions between media and other institutional settings while exploring issues of global memory and reconciliation in East Asia The title will be an essential read for anyone interested in memory studies media and communication and particularly the collective memory of the Nanjing Massacre      The Katyn Massacre 1940 Thomas Urban, 2025-01-31 In the spring of 1940 Stalin's NKVD executed 22 000 Polish officers ensigns and state officials near the Russian village of Katyn and other places When Wehrmacht soldiers discovered some of the graves three years later the Soviets succeeded in convincing US President Roosevelt of the German perpetration British Prime Minister Winston Churchill had no clear picture of the crime and therefore made no public comments Using thousands of recently released US documents this book refutes the popular thesis that the Western Allies deliberately lied about the Katyn case in order not to endanger the alliance with Stalin As well as consulting Polish and Russian documentation on this war crime for the first time the diaries of the Nazi Minister of Propaganda Joseph Goebbels who wrote a great deal about Katyn have been examined Completely new for research is the role that Hitler's opponents in the Wehrmacht played in solving the crime at the Nuremberg trial they convinced the US delegation that the executors were not from the SS but from the NKVD Nevertheless it took until 1990 for Kremlin chief Gorbachev to admit Soviet responsibility Today in Putin s Russia however there is a tendency once more to keep quiet about the crime or even to blame the Germans

The My Lai Massacre in American History and Memory Kendrick Oliver,2006 This book examines the response of American society to the My Lai massacre and its ambiguous place in American national memory The author argues that the massacre revelations left many Americans untroubled It was only when the soldiers most immediately responsible came to be tried that opposition to the conflict grew for these prosecutions were regarded by supporters of the war as evidence that the national leaders no longer had the will to do what was necessary to win Massacres and Morality Alex J. Bellamy,2012-09-27 Most cultural and legal codes agree that the intentional killing of civilians whether in peacetime or war is prohibited Yet despite this fact the deliberate killing of large numbers of civilians remains a persistent feature of global political life The Psychology of Genocide, Massacres, and Extreme Violence Donald G. Dutton,2007-05-30 Chronicling horrific events that brought the 20th century to witness the largest number of systematic slaughters of human beings in any century across history this work goes beyond historic details and examines contemporary psychological means that leaders use to convince individuals to commit horrific acts in the name of a political or military cause Massacres in Nanking Rwanda El Salvador Vietnam and other countries are reviewed in chilling detail But the core issue is what psychological forces are behind large scale killing what psychology can be used to indoctrinate normal people with a Groupthink that moves individuals to mass murder brutally and without regret even when the victims are innocent children Dutton shows us how individuals are convinced to commit such sadistic acts often preceded by torture after being indoctrinated with beliefs that the target victims are unjust inhuman or viral like a virus that must be destroyed or it will destroy society Malmedy Massacre Investigation United States.
