The Odd One Dies:

Director in Action Stephen Teo, 2007-06-01 Director in Action examines the career of Johnnie To whose art house action hits include A Hero Never Dies The Longest Nite Running out of Time The Mission PTU Breaking News Election and Election 2. The author discusses the symbiotic relationship between director and genre why To is regarded as an auteur and the influence he has on the trajectory of the action genre in the Hong Kong cinema. The author's view is that To's idiosyncratic auteurist style transforms the generic conventions under which he is compelled to work and that there is a discernible element of experimentalism in his most outstanding films. In addition To modulates the film noir form to suit his local contexts characters and locations to create a highly personalized noir cinema in post 1997 Hong Kong.

Masculinities and Hong Kong Cinema Laikwan Pang, Day Wong, 2005-03-01 This collection of exciting essays explores how the representations and the ideologies of masculinities can be productively studied in the context of Hong Kong cinema. It has two objectives: first to investigate the multiple meanings and manifestations of masculinities in Hong Kong cinema that compliment and contradict each other. Second to analyze the social and cultural environments that make these representations possible and problematic. Masculinities and Hong Kong Cinema presents a comprehensive picture of how Hong Kong mainstream cinematic masculinities are produced within their own socio-cultural discourses and how these masculinities are distributed, received and transformed within the setting of the market place. This volume is divided into three interrelated parts: the local cinematic tradition, the transnational context and reverberations, and the larger production, reception and mediation environments. The combination of these three perspectives will reveal the dynamics and tensions between the local and the transnational between production and reception and between text and context in the gendered manifestations of Hong Kong cinema.

Once Upon a Time in China Jeff Yang, 2003 From Jackie Chan to Ang Lee from Supercop to Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon Chinese cinema has truly arrived in the U.S. Filled with photos and tidbits, this is the definitive book for anyone who has already fallen in love with Chinese cinema and all those who are looking to learn more about it.

Honour and Violence Nafisa Shah, 2016-10-01 The practice of karo kari allows family, especially fathers, brothers and sons to take the lives of their daughters, sisters and mothers if they are accused of adultery. This volume examines the central position of karo kari in the social, political and juridical structures in Upper Sindh, Pakistan. Drawing connections between local contests over marriage and resources, Nafisa Shah unearths deep historical processes and power relations. In particular, she explores how the state justice system and informal mediations inform each other in state responses to karo kari and how modern law is implicated in this seemingly ancient cultural practice.

resists a monolithic chronicle and instead represents a narrative combining the perspectives of different interest groups and a complex process of compliance and resistance negotiation and contestation The meaning of Milkyway s films shifts as they are circulated across cultures and viewed within diverse frameworks and our understanding of Hong Kong cinema is subject to varying contexts and historical configurations For researchers in film and media studies and those who have a general interest in Hong Kong cinema Asian cinema or contemporary film culture this book reveals how a variety of industry and cultural bodies have become co creators of meaning for a film production house and how the company operates as a co creator of the discourse that surrounds it
