Lindheim, 2021 This book explores the ways in which Latin poets of the late Republic and the Augustan Age participate in a new cultural preoccupation with the dramatically expanding geographical space of empire Roman Love Elegy and the Eros of Empire Phebe Lowell Bowditch, 2023-05-22 This book explores Roman love elegy from postcolonial perspectives arguing that the tropes conventions and discourses of the Augustan genre serve to reinforce the imperial identity of its elite metropolitan audience Love elegy presents the phenomena and discourses of Roman imperialism in terms of visual spectacle the military triumph literary genre epic in relation to elegy material culture art and luxury goods and geographic space as intersecting with ancient norms of gender and sexuality in a way that reinforces Rome's dominance in the Mediterranean The introductory chapter lays out the postcolonial frame drawing from the work of Edward Said among other theorists and situates love elegy in relation to Roman Hellenism and the varied Roman responses to Greece and its cultural influences Four of the six subsequent chapters focus on the rhetorical ambivalence that characterizes love elegy's treatment of Greek influence the representation of the domina or mistress as simultaneously a figure for captive Greece and a trope for Roman imperialism the motif of the elegiac triumph with varying figures playing the triumphator as suggestive of Greco Roman cultural rivalry Rome's competing visions of an Attic and an Asiatic Hellenism The second and the final chapter focus on the figures of Osiris and Isis respectively as emblematic of Rome's colonialist and ambivalent representation of Egypt with the conclusion offering a deconstructive reading of elegy's rhetoric of orientalism The Elegies of Ted Hughes E. Hadley, 2010-05-07 The elegiac aspect of Ted Hughes poetry has been frequently overlooked an oversight which this book sets out to rectify Encompassing a broad range of themes from the decline of nature and local industry to the national grief caused by the First World War this book is a comprehensive addition to the study of Hughes poetry Roman Geographies of the Nile Andy

Merrills,2017-01-05 The River Nile fascinated the Romans and appeared in maps written descriptions texts poems and paintings of the developing empire Tantalised by the unique status of the river explorers were sent to find the sources of the Nile while natural philosophers meditated on its deeper metaphysical significance Andy Merrills book Roman Geographies of the Nile examines the very different images of the river that emerged from these descriptions from anthropomorphic figures brought repeatedly into Rome in military triumphs through the frequently whimsical landscape vignettes from the houses of Pompeii to the limitless river that spilled through the pages of Lucan s Civil War and symbolised a conflict and an empire without end Considering cultural and political contexts alongside the other Niles that flowed through the Roman world in this period this book provides a wholly original interpretation of the deeper significance of geographical knowledge during the later Roman Republic and early Principate The Academy ,1888 Elegiac extracts from Tibullus and Ovid

Tibullus,1840 The Roman Elegiac Poets Karl Pomeroy Harrington,1914 An Elegy Wrote in a Country Church Yard (1751) and The Eton College Manuscript Thomas Gray,2019-11-29 In An Elegy Wrote in a Country Church Yard Thomas Gray delves into themes of mortality memory and the quiet dignity of rural life Written in iambic pentameter with a poignant and introspective tone the poem captures the somber yet beautiful atmosphere of a churchyard where the remains of the ordinary and the forgotten speak to the transience of human existence The elegy is remarkable for its use of serene imagery and subdued eloquence placing it within the context of the burgeoning Romantic movement while simultaneously reflecting the neoclassical reverence for form and tradition Gray s exploration of social class and the universal fate of man resonates deeply making the work a timeless meditation on life and death Thomas Gray an 18th century poet and academic was profoundly influenced by his own experiences of loss and the intellectual milieu of his time A resident of Cambridge and a keen observer of the world around him Gray s contemplations on life were enriched by his connections to the pastoral landscape and the scholarly environment of Eton College where he produced the Eton College Manuscript His upbringing in a society that valued artistic expression and scholarly pursuits profoundly shaped his poetic voice An Elegy Wrote in a Country Church Yard is highly recommended for readers seeking an evocative reflection on the human condition Gray s rich language and meditative style invite readers to ponder their own lives and legacies This poem along with the lesser known Eton College Manuscript provides invaluable insights into the interplay between culture and mortality making it essential reading for those interested in exploring early Romantic poetry The Cyclopædia, Or, Universal Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Literature Abraham Rees,1819 The Cyclopædia; Or, Universal Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Literature. By Abraham Rees, ... with the Assistance of Eminent Professional Gentlemen. Illustrated with Numerous Engravings, by the Most Distinguished Artists. In Thirthy-nine Volumes. Vol. 1 [- 39] ,1819 Vergil and Elegy Alison Keith,Micah Y. Myers,2023-04-28 Born in 70 BCE the Roman poet Vergil came of age during a period of literary experimentalism among Latin authors These authors introduced new Greek verse forms and metres into the existing repertoire of Latin poetic genres and measures foremost among them being elegy a genre that the ancients thought originated in funeral lament but which in classical Rome became first person poetry about the poet lover's amatory vicissitudes Despite the influence of notable elegists on Vergil's early poetry his critics have rarely paid attention to his engagement with the genre across his body of work This collection is devoted to an exploration of Vergil's multifaceted relations with elegy Contributors shed light on Vergil's interactions with the genre and its practitioners across classical medieval and early modern periods The book investigates Vergil's hexameter poetry in relation to contemporary Latin elegy by Gallus Tibullus and Propertius and the subsequent reception of Vergil's radical combination of epic with elegy by later Latin and Italian authors Filling a striking gap in the scholarship Vergil and Elegy illuminates the famous poet's wide ranging engagement with the genre of elegy across his oeuvre

The Elegies of Sextus Propertius, Translated Into English Verse, with Life of the Poet and Illustrative Notes, by J. Cranstoun

Sextus Propertius, 1875 The Daughter's Way Tanis MacDonald, 2012-09-01 The Daughter's Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women's elegies with a special emphasis on the father's death as a literary and political watershed. The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay, P. K. Page, Jay Macpherson, Margaret Atwood, Kristjana Gunnars, Lola Lemire Tostevin, Anne Carson, and Erin Mour as elegiac daughteronomies, literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poet's investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention. Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio-political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss, but all the poets in The Daughter's Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender. Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation, inheritance, and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship, The Daughter's Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry. By investigating the way a daughter's filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women's elegies, the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father-daughter kinship. The Elegies of Sextus Propertius Sextus Propertius, 1875 The Frontiers of the Empire and the Edges of the World in the Augustan Poetic Imaginary Micah Young Myers, 2008 The Athenaeum, 1909
