The Encyclopedia of New Testament Textual Criticism Robert B. Waltz, 2025-01-23 This is the final version of the Encyclopedia of New Testament Textual Criticism a web site that has been updated for several decades This version released

January 2025 represents the final revision The goal is to provide as much information about the sources manuscripts versions etc used to reconstruct the original text of the New Testament Note that this version is more recent than the web site and represents a small update Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah,2020-10-02

Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i e to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice

Hunting for the word of God Sami Ameri,2017-12-09 Almost a century ago scholars were debating the authenticity of some passages of the New Testament After a revolutionary renaissance in the field of biblical textual criticism however they began to doubt the genuineness of the entire text No longer are we able to claim the authenticity of even one passage from the New Testament The whole Christian edifice is now in danger Conversely today the authenticity of the Qur'anic text is also being challenged by questioning the Islamic version of the preservation of the Muslim holy book and the preservation of the canonical readings of the original text In the last decade some missionaries started using the recent discovery of Qur'anic manuscripts in Sana'a Yemen to claim that there had been an early corruption of the text This book aims at taking its readers on a journey through the latest academic research on the topic in the hope of bringing them as close as possible to the heart of the debate It also has as its objective to provide the most satisfactory answers to the most bewildering questions readers may have about the authenticity of the two texts in question the New Testament and the Qur'an The author's expertise in both areas the Biblical and Qur'anic will enable the reader to gain solid knowledge of the subject matter tackled in this book

Handbook to the Textual Criticism of the New Testament Sir Frederic George Kenyon,1901 The Text of Matthew in the Writings of Basil of Caesarea Jean-François Racine,2004 The series seeks to contribute to the understanding of the variation and transmission of the New Testament by analyzing quotations of and allusions to passages of it in the work of Christian writers of Late Antiquity many of which can be more precisely located both temporally and geographically than the earliest New Testament manuscripts Racine Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley finds Basil ca 330 379 a valuable witness in that regard because he quotes abundantly and at length apparently coping from a written text A similar study has been conducted on his brother Gregory of Nyssa ca 335 394 so the combination adds much to the knowledge of the New Testament text in use in Cappadocia during the fourth century The study is slightly revised from his October 2000 Ph D dissertation for the University of St Michael s College Distributed by Aspen Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Discernment in the Desert Fathers Antony D. Rich,2007-04-01 Discernment in the Desert Fathers is a study of discernment Diakrisis in the life and thought of the fourth and fifth century Egyptian Desert Fathers Rich argues that their understanding of Diakrisis was based upon a practical application of biblical Diakrisis in general and not as has been argued primarily a development of the gift of discernment of spirits He begins with an examination of Scripture and goes on to consider the philosophical and theological background of the period as represented by Plotinus and Origen respectively An examination of the works of the first theologians of the desert Evagrius and Cassian who lived among these first Christian monks and nuns provides an early interpretation of the sayings of the Desert Fathers or Apophthegmata Patrum The Greek Latin and Coptic sayings that survive are then examined in detail some of them translated into English for the first time This indepth analysis including the comprehensive list of cross references which will be a valuable resource for scholars researching the subject in the future provides many insights into the lives of these early Christians and demonstrates how Diakrisis touched every aspect of their inward and outward lives Rich concludes that Diakrisis was a critical faculty and charism central to the spiritual and practical life of these early monks and nuns in their mystical search for God for purity of life and knowledge of him
