Janet Hasselbring, 2010-11-23 What Do You See Mrs Night Heron is a delightful poem describing the sights of the cove through the eyes of Mrs Heron who is sitting on her nest in a slash pine When her first egg cracks Mrs Heron thinks her chick is the most spectacular sight of all The educational section of this book describes the breeding and nesting habits of birds and even invites the readers to try and build a nest themselves An egg is hidden in each illustration of this book The Development of Behavior in the Black-crowned Night Heron Anne Elizabeth Graham, 1977 The Status and Distribution of the Black-crowned Night Heron in Wisconsin James E. Hoefler, 1980 Black-crowned Night-heron William E. Davis (Jr), 1993 Night Heron S. Murali, 1998 Yellow-crowned Night-heron Bryan D. Watts, 1995 Night Heron Danny Glenn, Unicorn Press, 2009 Breeding Biology of the Yellow-crowned Night Heron Fred Mason Bagley, 1977 Yellow-crowned Night-heron Bryan D. Watts, 1995 The Birds of North America , 1993 The Yellow-crowned Night Heron of Socorro Island, Mexico Adriaan Joseph Van Rossem, 1943 Copper and the Tree Frog Mike Jones, 2020-08-13 Caution This book may lead to kids frog calling and owl hooting around your home or library Other side effects may include laughing out loud a strong desire to go outside and increased interest in nature Copper enjoys the comfortable life of an ordinary house cat playing with crinkly toys eating from a bowl piled high with food sleeping in a plushy bed and conducting embarrassing personal grooming in front of houseguests But Copper also craves adventure and that s hard to find when you re stuck inside the house Her appetite for adventure is soon satisfied by a visit from Riley a peculiar green tree frog who represents the FLOCC a special wildlife squad Another member of the FLOCC Benny the night heron is in trouble His chicks are disappearing one by one and suspicion of a traitor in the FLOCC has forced the group to ask an indoor animal for help To solve the mystery and prove herself to the FLOCC Copper will have to overcome her fears and plunge deep into the gloomy rookery where the night herons make their home Along the way she ll meet creatures she never imagined face dangers she never anticipated and clean some pretty gross stuff off her fur somehow Copper s adventure is chock full of Copper s Distract Facts named for her Acute Feline Distractitis which share funny nature facts related to her adventure A bonus section at the end of the book also teaches kids about scientific names and shares the special origin behind the name for each of Copper s friends This middle grade novel is perfect for ages 8 to 12 The companion website includes even more resources for kids to explore and inspire them to get outside and experience what the natural world has to offer Poetry an Anthology , 1995 The Night Heron's Scream Jack Swenson, 2007-08 I get inspirations for my stories in some odd places and at some strange times I wrote one of these stories after a shower one morning as I was putting on my clothes and drying my hair Some of the stories are rewrites of old ones but most of them are new In this collection I have tried to avoid cute or self promoting stories some of which polluted my earlier efforts There s nothing heroic nothing cute here At least that was my goal If you like bite sized reads I think you will like these stories You can read the book at a sitting or a story or two at a time Take the book to bed with you and read a couple of these little tales before the Sandman gets there Pleasant dreams The Birds of North America ,1995 The Spatial Distribution of the Nests of the Black-crowned Night Heron (Nycticorax Nycticorax) and the Snowy Egret (Leucophoyx Thula) in Central Utah Randall S. Isham,1975
