The Nordic Countries And Africa Old And New Relations:

The Nordic Countries and Africa Lennart Wohlgemuth, 2002 The Nordic Africa Institute has asked one representative from each Nordic country to give an account of how their respective countries have dealt with Africa over the years in some cases even over the centuries but with an emphasis on the last 50 years They were also asked to indicate what role Africa has played in the politics trade etc of their countries The diversity of the invited authors backgrounds and fields of specialization is reflected in their contributions but the authors have one thing in common a long experience from and deep engagement in Africa s development Lennart Wohlgemuth has been the director of the Nordic Africa Institute since 1993 Changing

Relations Between Churches in Europe and Africa Katharina Kunter, Jens Holger Schøjrring, 2008 Proceedings from the conference Changing relationships between churches in Africa and Europe in the 20th century Christian identity in the times of political crises which took place October 8-12 2005 at Makumira University College of Tumaini University in Tanzania

Analysing the Foreign Policy of Small States in the EU H. Larsen, 2005-08-03 Can a distinct national foreign policy still be identified for small EU member states and what accounts for the balance between national and EU foreign policy Henrik Larsen develops an analytical framework for analyzing these questions and offers solutions through an empirical examination of the foreign policy of a small EU member state in the context of EU foreign policy the case of Denmark The book looks at seven policy areas policy towards other EU member states anti terrorism development the Balkans Africa Latin America and trade On the basis of the empirical study the implications for the theoretical study of national foreign policy in an EU Context are outlined It is suggested that we need a new mixed approach to foreign policy analysis within the EU taking into account the nature of the policy area concerned and national conceptions of actorness Re-Viewing

Resistance in Namibian History Jeremy Silvester, 2015-07-13 Re Viewing Resistance in Namibian History brings together the work of experienced academics and a new wave of young Namibian historians architects of the past They are working on a range of public history and heritage projects from late nineteenth century resistance to the use of songs from the role of gender in SWAPO s camps to memorialisation and from international solidarity to aspects of the history of Kavango and Caprivi In a culturally and politically diverse democracy such as Namibia there are bound to be different perspectives on the past and history will be as plural as the history tellers The chapters in this book reflect this diversity and combine to create a remarkable collection of divergent voices providing alternative perspectives on the past The book writes forgotten people into history provides a reading of the past that reflects the tensions and competing identities that pervaded the struggle and deals with heritage that hurts Navigating Colonial Orders Kirsten Alsaker Kjerland, Bjørn Enge Bertelsen, 2014-11-01

Norwegians in colonial Africa and Oceania had varying aspirations and adapted in different ways to changing social political and geographical circumstances in foreign colonial settings They included Norwegian shipowners captains and diplomats traders and whalers along the African coast and in Antarctica large scale plantation owners in Mozambique and Hawai i big business men in South Africa jacks of all trades in the Solomon Islands timber merchants on Zanzibar coffee farmers in Kenya and King Leopold's footmen in Congo This collection reveals narratives of the colonial era that are often ignored or obscured by the national histories of former colonial powers It charts the entrepreneurial routes chosen by various Norwegians and the places they ventured while demonstrating the importance of recognizing the complicity of such non colonial colonials for understanding the complexity of colonial history The Lord's Resistance Army Mareike Schomerus,2010-07-08 The Lord's Resistance Army is Africa's most persistent and notorious terrorist group Led by the mysterious Joseph Kony it has committed a series of horrific human rights abuses including massacres and mutilations Since the mid 1980s it has abducted tens of thousands of people including large numbers of children forced to train as fighters The IC in 2005 issued warrants for Kony and his top commanders and the United States is backing a military campaign against the group But the LRA survives continuing to inspire both fascination and fear Authoritative but provocative The Lord's Resistance Army provides the most comprehensive analysis of the group available From the roots of the violence to the oppressive responses of the Ugandan government and the failures of the international community this collection looks at this most brutal of conflicts in fascinating depth and includes a remarkable first hand interview with Kony himself

International and Comparative Librarianship Peter Johan Lor,2019-06-17 Based on his extensive experience in international librarianship Peter Johan Lor South Africa's first National Librarian and a former Secretary General of the IFLA has written the first comprehensive and systematic overview of international and comparative librarianship His book provides a conceptual framework and methodological guidelines for the field and covers the full range of international relations among libraries and information services with particular attention to the international political economy of information the international diffusion of innovations and policy in library and information services LIS development and international aid It concludes with a discussion of the practical relevance and future of international and comparative studies in LIS See a short interview with Peter Lor on his work <https://www.ifla.org/node/92590> African Footballers in Sweden Carl-Gustaf Scott,2015-09-16 This book employs men's football as a lens through which to investigate questions relating to immigration racism integration and national identity in present day Sweden Specifically this study explores if professional football serves as a successful model of multiracialism multiculturalism for the rest of Swedish society to emulate

Negotiating Civil War Henry Lovat,2020-07-16 A theoretically informed critical account of the making of the international legal rules governing civil war The Underground Wealth of Nations Jeannette Graulau,2019-01-01 Silver mining was a capitalist business long before the supposed origin of modern capitalism Hundreds of years before a sixteenth century crisis in European agriculture led to the origins of capital investment and finance the silver mining industry exhibited many of the features of modern capitalism Silver mines were large scale businesses that demanded large investments and steady cash flow achieved by spreading that risk through fungible shares and creating legal structures to protect entrepreneurs from financial disaster Jeannette Graulau argues that mining preceded agriculture as the first true capitalist enterprise of the modern world New Routes, 2002 A journal of peace research and action Three Wise Monkeys Charles van Onselen, 2023-03-23 Volume 1 of Three Wise Monkeys explores the Portuguese colonisation of Mozambique and the gradual transformation of the colony into a reservoir of cheap labour first during the Atlantic slave trade and then during the rise of the voracious Rand mining industry Mozambique became locked into financial dependence on South Africa The South African mining industry came to own significant parts of the harbour infrastructure of Lourenço Marques The mining industry's insatiable appetite for pit props gave rise to a globalised trade in timber flowing in from the US Scandinavia and Australia via new shipping lines to the port of Lourenço Marques After World War I the South African gold mining industry and Mozambique's weak central bank the Banco Nacional Ultramarino operating alongside the South African Reserve Bank a branch of the Royal Mint and the Rand Refinery effectively controlled the economic fortunes and destiny of South Africa's neighbour Mozambique was colonised twice over first by Portugal and then by South Africa The European Union in Africa Niagalé Bagoyoko, Marie V. Gilbert, 2007 A Current Bibliography on African Affairs, 2003 Southern African Liberation Struggles A. J. Temu, Joel das Neves Tembe, 2014 Les volumes 1 à 5 se concentrent sur les guerres de libération en Angola au Mozambique en Namibie en Afrique du Sud et au Zimbabwe Les volumes 6 à 7 relatent les expériences vécues dans les tats de la ligne de front Botswana Tanzanie et Zambie et dans les pays d'extension Lesotho Malawi et Swaziland chaque fois un chapitre historique analytique est suivi d'une longue section d'histoires personnelles non seulement en anglais mais aussi en portugais Mozambique en swahili Tanzanie et en shona Zimbabwe Les deux derniers volumes se concentrent sur les pays et les organisations internationales l'intérieur et l'extérieur de l'Afrique qui ont sympathisé avec les mouvements de libération et les ont soutenus de diverses manières Working Paper, 2007 African Research & Documentation, 2007

Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström, 2002 The interviews in this book were conducted for the Nordic Africa Institute's research project National Liberation in Southern Africa The role of the Nordic countries Around 80 representatives of the Southern African liberation movements as well as Swedish and other opinion makers administrators and politicians reflect on the Nordic support to these struggles Prominent contemporary leaders among them Joaquim Chissano from Mozambique Kenneth Kaunda from Zambia and Thabo Mbeki from South Africa give their views on a relationship that largely developed outside the public arena and of which there is scant evidence in open sources The book is a reference source to a unique North South relationship in the Cold War period The Road to Democracy in South Africa South African Democracy Education Trust, 2010 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994
