

A classic British drawing room scene from a television show. In the center, a man in a dark suit lies face down on a patterned rug, with a small wooden stool tipped over his head. To the left, a man in a grey overcoat and hat stands near a large vase of red roses. Behind him, a police officer in a dark uniform and helmet stands with his hands clasped. To the right of the body, a woman in a pink top and straw hat stands with a brown bag. Next to her, an older man in a white shirt and dark jacket stands with his hands in his pockets. Further right, a woman in a dark blue and white uniform, possibly a maid, stands holding a long-handled object. In the background, a large painting hangs on the wall, and a mounted deer head is visible on the left. A chandelier hangs from the ceiling. The text "WHODUNNIT?" is overlaid in large, yellow, stylized letters across the middle of the scene.
