The Of Franza Requiem For Fanny Goldman:

The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann Ingeborg Bachmann, 2010-08-31 These two fragments of novels Ingeborg Bachmann's only untranslated works of fiction were intended to follow the widely acclaimed Malina in a cycle to be entitled Todesarten or Ways of Dying Although Bachmann died before completing them The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann stand on their own continuing Bachmann's tradition of using language to confront the disease plaguing human relationships Through the tales of two women in postwar Austria Bachmann explores the ways of dying inflicted upon the living from outside and from within through history politics religion family gender relations and the self Bachmann's allegiance to the twin muses of memory and history as well as her perception of fascism as not being limited to the context of the war but also existing within the intimate relations of everyday life between husbands and wives brothers and sisters psychiatrists and patients are supremely evident in The Book of Franza Here Bachmann follows a woman who escapes from a sanatorium and after years of silence sends her brother a cryptic telegram Rightly suspecting that she has fled her sadistic husband a renowned Austrian psychiatrist whose intimate relations have merged with his studies of concentration camps her brother finds her in their childhood home Together they travel to Egypt where Franza slowly begins to regain her bearings But Franza's desire to cleanse herself by journeying into the heart of the desert's void ends in tragedy as she becomes the victim of a horrible act of violence Unlike Franza who attempts to flee her past but fails the heroine of Requiem for Fanny Goldmann makes no attempt to escape her history This novel tells of the demise of a Viennese actress who is manipulated by a younger ambitious playwright to advance his career Deception follows disloyalty the final treachery comes when the playwright portrays her in a novel which secures his fame and in Fanny's eyes robs her of her future Caught in a perpetual stasis Fanny suffers in total obscurity as her present is stolen from her as well Whether analyzing the place where the self begins and the power of history ends or the ways in which women are forced to be complicit in their mistreatment at the hands of men Bachmann's critical approach to the human psyche is unparalleled Mesmerizing and profound The Book of Franza and Requiem for Fanny Goldmann constitute the final evidence that Ingeborg Bachmann is the most important female German language writer of the postwar period The Franza Case and Requiem for Fanny Goldman Ingeborg Bachmann, 1994-08-01 Critical Neurodiversity Studies Jenny Bergenmar, Louise Creechan, Anna Stenning, 2025-07-10 This landmark volume for neurodiversity studies introduces a new more inclusive field of scholarship for literary and cultural studies Bringing together scholars and writers from across Europe it explores the revolutionary potential of neurodivergent scholarly practice and demonstrates that there is no such thing as a normal response to cultural production Drawing on critical disability studies to highlight the ideology behind dominant notions of ability it moves beyond representations of neurodivergent characters and highlights the entanglement of sensory and cognitive difference with both cultural practices and social status Combining the recent turn towards psychiatric depathologisation with insights from feminist queer intersectional and critical race theory this volume aims to amplify the epistemic authority of those who have been subject to marginalisation because of the ways we are taught to read and value literary culture In essence this volume reveals what it means to read write and love literature and the arts as a neurodivergent person Nostalgia After Nazism Heidi M. Schlipphacke, 2010 Nostalgia After Nazism is a compelling sophisticated entry in the growing field of German and Austrian memory studies It introduces into German studies a nuanced set of tools drawn from the broad panoply of contemporary theory and sets those voices onto the broader historical landscape of post World War II confrontations between the West's recent history and its present The result is a highly readable impeccably documented volume that joins the best of literary history and close readings to a broad spectrum of theoretical models Nostalgia After Nazism offers an exemplary model for cultural scholarship after the supposed end of theory recapturing how theory history and the texts of culture are mutually illuminating Katherine Arens The University of Texas at Austin Medical Humanity and Inhumanity in the German-Speaking World Mererid Puw Davies, Sonu Shamdasani, 2020-04-15 Medical Humanity and Inhumanity in the German Speaking World is the first volume dedicated to exploring the interface of medicine the human and the humane in the German speaking lands The volume tracks the designation and making through medicine of the human and inhuman and the humane and inhumane from the Middle Ages to the present day Eight individual chapters undertake explorations into ways in which theories and practices of medicine in the German speaking world have come to define the human and highlight how such theories and practices have consolidated or undermined notions of humane behaviour Cultural analysis is central to this investigation foregrounding the reflection refraction and indeed creation of these theories and practices in literature life writing and other discourses and media Contributors bring to bear perspectives from literary studies film studies critical theory cultural studies history and the history of medicine and psychiatry Thus this collection is historical in the most expansive sense for it debates not only what historical accounts bring to our understanding of this topic It encompasses too investigation of life writing documentary and theory and literary works to bring to light elusive paradoxical underexplored yet vital issues in history and culture The Forgiveness to Come Peter Jason Banki, 2017-11-07 This book is concerned with the aporias or impasses of forgiveness especially in relation to the legacy of the crimes against humanity perpetrated by the Nazis and their collaborators during World War II Banki argues that while forgiveness of the Holocaust is and will remain impossible we cannot rest upon that impossibility Rather the impossibility of forgiveness must be thought in another way In an epoch of worldwidization we may not be able simply to escape the violence of scenes and rhetoric that repeatedly portray apology reconciliation and forgiveness as accomplishable acts Accompanied by Jacques Derrida's thought of forgiveness of the unforgivable and its elaboration in relation to crimes against humanity the book undertakes close readings of literary philosophical and cinematic texts by Simon Wiesenthal Jean Améry Vladimir Jankélévitch Robert Antelme and Eva Mozes Kor These texts contend with the idea that the crimes of the Nazis are inextinguishable that they lie beyond any possible atonement or repair Banki argues that the juridical concept of crimes against humanity calls for a thought of forgiveness one that would not imply closure of the infinite wounds of the past How could such a forgiveness be thought or dreamed Banki shows that if today we cannot simply escape the worldwidization of forgiveness then it is necessary to rethink what forgiveness is the conditions under which it supposedly takes place and especially its relation to justice literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile L adopts an alternative literary fore bear of the European tradition

Women and Miracle Stories Anna Korte, 2018-11-13 This book contains a multidisciplinary collection of studies on women in miracle stories found in texts ranging from religious classics to contemporary literary fiction Miracle stories are a genre of great importance for the study of women s religious inheritance and for the historical and cultural understanding of women as makers of faith Miracle stories are very generally speaking more open to popular religion and culture than for instance doctrinal and official ecclesiastical texts and as such they can be of special interest to the study of women s lives and religious aspirations Remarkably up till now this genre has not been looked at from this point of view This book aims to open this field for further research by presenting case studies from diverse angles and disciplines Some of the questions this book tries to answer are What do miracle stories specifically tell us about women Are there some types of miracles that are in particular related to certain groups of women What do these stories tell us about women as performers and or subjects of miracles What can be said about the social function and religious meaning of miracles by specifically looking at the way certain groups of women are practising and experiencing miracles By including research on miracle stories in contemporary fiction written by women this book also wants to acknowledge and research the disputed status of miracles as well of women in our present society which is moving from modernity to post modernity Please note that Women and Miracle Stories is previously published by Brill in hardback ISBN 90 04 16681 8 still available

Women Writers and National Identity Stephanie Bird, 2003-09-29 In Women Writers and National Identity Stephanie Bird offers a detailed analysis of the twin themes of female identity and national identity in the works of three major twentieth century German language women writers Bird argues for the importance of an understanding of ambiguity tension and contradiction in the fictional narratives of Ingeborg Bachmann Anne Duden and Emine zdamar She aims to demonstrate how ambiguity is itself central to the development of an understanding of identity and that literary texts are uniquely able to point to the ethical importance of ambiguity through their stylistic complexity Bird gives close readings of the three writers and draws on feminist theory and psychoanalysis to elucidate the complex nature of individual identity This book will be of interest to literary and women's studies scholars as well as Germanists
