Sister Jane Her Friends and Acquaintances Joel Chandler Harris, 2015-07-16 Excerpt from Sister Jane Her Friends and Acquaintances A Narrative of Certain Events and Episodes Transcribed From the Papers of the Late William Wornum The little porch and the cosy room behind it belonged to a rambling one story house standing sidewise to one of the two main thoroughfares of the village The building had been a small cottage of three rooms in which my father dwelt and carried on the tailoring business but in times of prosperity he had had the forethought to add four more rooms so that now the house was in the shape of a big U its head facing the street and its heels stretching toward a garden that ran behind the house and behind the stores that were ranged along the southern angle of the street The sign William Wornum Tailoring hung on the corner next to the little porch for several years after my father's death but one windy night it came clattering down and was stored away among the small stock of family relic About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
