Sitt Marie Rose Etel Adnan, 1982 Translated from the French by Georgina Kleege SITT MARIE ROSE an SPD bestseller is the story of a woman abducted by militiamen during the civil war in Lebanon Already a classic of war literature it won the France Pays Arabes award in Paris and has been translated into six languages Fiction Sitt Marie Rose Etel Adnan, 1989 This is the story of a woman abducted by militiamen during the Civil War in Lebanon and executed It reveals the tribal mentality which makes the Middle East a dangerous powerhouse It constitutes a new narrative form and is already a classic of war literature Back cover The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas

Jennings, 2008 Sitt Marie Rose Etel Adnan, 1997 On Evelyne Accad Cheryl Toman, 2007 Between Languages and Cultures Anuradha Dingwaney, Carol Maier, 2010-11-23 Translated texts are often either uncritically consumed by readers teacher and scholars or seen to represent an ineluctable loss a diminishing of original texts Translation however is a cultural practice influenced also by social and political imperatives which can open more doors than it closes The essays in this book show how the act of translation when vigilantly and critically attended to becomes a means for active interrogation

Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi, 2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a smiliar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures War's Other Voices miriam cooke, 1996-08-01 This book challenges the assumption that men write of war women of the hearth The Lebanese war has seen the publication of many more works of fiction by women than by men Miriam Cooke has termed these women the Beirut Decentrists as they are decentered or excluded from both literary canon and social discourse Although they may not share religious or political affiliation they do share a perspective which holds them together Cooke traces the transformation in consciousness that has taken place among women who observed and recorded the progress towards chaos in Lebanon During the so called two year war of 1975 76 little comment was made about those usually men in search of economic security who left the saturnalia of violence but with time attitudes changed Women became aware that they had remained out of a sense of responsibility for others and that they had survived Consciousness of survival was catalytic the Beirut Decentrists began to describe a society that had gone beyond the masculinization normal in most wars and achieved an almost unprecedented feminization Emigration the expected behavior for men before 1975 became the sin qua non for Lebanese citizenship The writings of the Beirut Decentrists offer hope of an escape from the anarchy If men and women could espouse the Lebanese women s sense of responsibility the energy that had fueled the unrelenting savagery could be turned to reconstruction But that was before the invasion of 1982 Etel Adnan Lisa Suhair Majaj,Amal Amireh,2015-10-02 This collection of essays concentrates on Arab American writer and artist Etel Adnan Up until now there has been no single volume dedicated to her work despite Adnan s increasing recognition and acclaim across the United States Europe and the Middle East The essays fall into two sections In the first the essays respond to the range of vision and experience in Adnan s writing and art through analysis and appreciation The second section focuses on responses to and interpretations of Sitt Marie Rose Adnan s well known novel about the Lebanese war As a whole the writings in this work seek to provide a comprehensive look at Adnan s literary and artistic accomplishments through analysis and close readings that place her texts within wider literary contexts Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination Kathy-Ann Tan,2015-12-07 Explores how traditional notions of citizenship are contested and altered through literature Literature has always played a central role in creating and disseminating culturally specific notions of citizenship nationhood and belonging In Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination author Kathy Ann Tan investigates metaphors configurations parameters and articulations of U S and Canadian citizenship that are enacted renegotiated and revised in modern literary texts particularly during periods of emergence and crisis Tan brings together for the first time a selection of canonical and lesser known U S and Canadian writings for critical consideration She begins by exploring literary depiction of willful or wayward citizens and those with precarious bodies that are viewed as threatening undesirable unacceptable including refugees and asylum seekers undocumented migrants deportees and stateless people She also considers the rights to citizenship and political membership claimed by queer bodies and an examination of new and alternative forms of citizenship such as denizenship urban citizenship diasporic citizenship and Indigenous citizenship With case studies based on works by a diverse collection of authors including Nathaniel Hawthorne Djuna Barnes Etel Adnan Sarah Schulman Walt Whitman Gail Scott and Philip Roth Tan uncovers alternative forms of collectivity community and nation across a broad range of perspectives In line with recent cross disciplinary explorations in the field Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination shows citizenship as less of a fixed or static legal entity and more as a set of symbolic and cultural practices Scholars of literary studies cultural studies and citizenship studies will be grateful for Tan s illuminating study
