e-Write Your Way To An A-Star [Advanced] Angeline Tan, 2013-05-29 The learning and teaching of composition at Primary Five and Primary Six is similar How well a student writes a composition is dependent primarily on his or her exposure to the English Language Language skills are not acquired overnight but can be gradually enhanced through intensive exposure a voracious appetite for reading and constant practice Many students who are able to breeze through Paper 2 of their English Language examination find it difficult to score well for Paper 1 Composition and Situation Writing Given that Paper 1 takes about 30% of the entire PSLE English examination it is essential for students to develop their writing skills to score in this area Unfortunately many students do not get sufficient opportunities to write compositions in school and have them graded by their teachers Practice makes perfect It is beneficial for students to get regular practice in writing their own compositions This book has been specially designed to be a valuable educational aid for students of all ability levels Whether your child is facing difficulties in writing compositions or is already a prolific young writer seeking to up his or her writing skills a notch this book will provide the stimulus for your child to take his or her writing skills to new heights The model compositions are of a high standard to serve as a reference for students and inspire them to further develop their writing skills Ample guidance is provided for every composition exercise to help students to pen down terrific compositions they never thought they were capable of By faithfully going through every composition and situational writing exercise your child will be embarking on a fruitful journey towards becoming a more confident and creative writer

Come As You Are, After Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Jonathan Goldberg, Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick, 2021 Come As You Are After Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick brings together two pieces of writing In the first After Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Jonathan Goldberg assesses her legacy prompted mainly by writing about Sedgwick's work that has appeared in the years since her death in April 2009 Writing by Lauren Berlant Jane Gallop Katy Hawkins Scott Herring Lana Lin and Philomina Tsoukala are among those considered as he explores questions of queer temporality and the breaching of ontological divides Main concerns include the relationship of Sedgwick's later work in Proust fiber and Buddhism to her fundamental contribution to queer theory and the axes of identification across difference that motivated her work and attachment to it Come As You Are the other piece of writing is a previously unpublished talk Sedgwick gave in 1999 2000 It represents a significant bridge between her earlier and later work sharing with her book Tendencies the ambition to discover the something that makes queer inextinguishable In this piece Sedgwick does that by contemplating her own mortality alongside her creative engagement with Buddhist thought especially the in between states named bardos and her newfound energy for making things These were represented in a show of her fabric art Floating Columns In the Bardo that accompanied her talk a number of images of which are included in this book They feature floating figures suspended in the realization of death They are objects produced by Sedgwick made of fabric they come from her yet are discontinuous with her occupying a mode of existence that exceeds the span of human life and the confines of individual identity They could be put beside the queer transitive identifications across difference that Goldberg s essay explores Creative Exercises for Writing Box Set (07CREW & 05CREW) Jöri Seen, Mark McCanister, 2025-07-01
