Díaz, 2020-02-05 Bringing together a range of perspectives from tertiary language and culture teachers and researchers this volume highlights the need for greater critical engagement with the question of language teacher identity agency and responsibility in light of an ever changing global socio political and cultural landscape The book examines the ways in which various moral ethical and ideological dimensions increasingly inform language teaching practice for tertiary modern foreign language teachers both collectively as a profession but also at the individual level in everyday classroom situations Employing a narrative inquiry research approach which combines brief autobiographical reflections with semi structured interview data the volume provides a comprehensive portrait of the processes ten teacher researchers in Australia working across five different languages engage in as they seek to position themselves more purposefully within a critical political and ethical framework of teaching practice The book will serve as a springboard from which to promote greater understanding and discussion of the impact of globalisation and social justice corollaries within the field as well as to mediate the gap between language teaching theory and practice making this key reading for graduate students and researchers in intercultural communication language teaching and language teacher education

Teacher Education in the 21st Century Antje-Marianne Kolde,Ruth Frehner,Brigitte Kürsteiner,Lukas Bleichenbacher,2016-08-17 How can teacher education prepare future teachers for their work in increasingly diverse classrooms How does the concept of plurilingualism inform language educational policy in different countries What are the current opportunities and challenges in the domain of internationalisation in teacher education The contributions to this volume address these questions from different theoretical perspectives and with a strong emphasis on the actual practices in various classrooms At a time when simplistic essentialist biased and discriminatory ideologies and practices see a rebirth in public discourse and represent a risk to education the contributors here take stock and describe some worthwhile alternatives The first set of chapters addresses the integration of ethnic religious and gender diversity in teacher education colleges In the second part the notion of plurilingualism in different educational contexts is explored from a critical sociolinguistic point of view The chapters in the third part present evidence from innovative international academic exchange programs and how they contribute to socio spatial learning amongst others The common denominator in this volume is the notion of convergence the coexistence of people and practices in diverse contexts

Ensuring All Children Learn Ishmael I. Munene,2021-08-23 Ensuring All Children Learn Lessons from the South on What Works in Equity and Inclusion brings together a rich tapestry of cases from three southern continents focusing on issues germane to the access learning and retention in basic education in the context of Education for All EFA It is a narrative of both the disappointment that the implementation of EFA did not go as envisaged and of policy alternatives and hopes for a brighter future The focus on Africa Asia and Latin America permits the reader to appreciate both the diversity of issues central to EFA and the physical spread of the challenges The book confirms that whereas southern countries have adopted EFA as an overall policy goal empirical evidence from the case studies uncovers critical lapses in policies and strategies Four key issues inform the thematic analysis in the book the overall experience in implementing EFA the specific challenges faced the lessons learned and prospects for the future The solutions to these challenges provide avenues for the attainment of basic education for all school eligible

Understanding Science Teachers' Professional Knowledge Growth Michel Grangeat,2015-12-09 Science education has to be improved in order to become more responsive to the needs of society confronted with a rapidly changing world Bringing science teaching up to a higher level is a key factor in this endeavour The authors of this book think about teachers as part of the immediate and large communities and systems in which they function They consider the development of teachers professional knowledge as a continuous process that depends on the communities they are committed to and participate in the discipline they are teaching the social context in which they perform the instruments made available in their environment and their day to day classroom experience From this perspective each teacher learns in an individual way but cannot learn without relying on their colleagues and other partners Such professional knowledge is partly tacit and explicit and thus possessed by teachers experts and researchers Coordinating activity theory and models of pedagogical content knowledge PCK the book provides a better understanding of the growth of science teacher professional knowledge The chapters are organised around shared perspectives and themes and based on research findings The emerging model can inform pre service teacher educators researchers and students The book results from exchanges and symposia during international conferences ECER ESERA and from a two day seminar held at Universit Grenoble Alpes in March 2015 Foreign Language Teaching in Romanian Higher Education Lucia-Mihaela Grosu-Rădulescu,2018-08-15 This volume gathers recent research findings in the field of foreign language FL teaching in Romanian higher education dwelling on both methodology and students learning outcomes The book satisfies the need for an up to date overview of FL teaching in Romanian universities in the European context as well as from a global international perspective This book confers visibility to Romanian foreign language scholars research and it opens new paths for debate and collaboration worldwide The scholars included in this volume have extensive expertise in the field of foreign language teaching and research in higher education which is supported by their international recognition as specialists in their specific areas The contributing authors approach their respective chapters relying on both qualitative and quantitative research Their experience and conclusions will prove helpful for any foreign language professional working in tertiary education

Situations Et Contextes Instructors Edition: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
