Siwa Sir Charles Dalrymple Belgrave,1923 Siwa Oasis Ahmed Fakhry,1944 Seawater Intrusion in Coastal Aquifers ,1997-01-01 Siwa Margaret M. Vale,2015-01-01 Siwa is a remote oasis deep in the heart of the Egyptian desert near the border with Libya Until an asphalt road was built to the Mediterranean coast in the 1980s its only links to the outside world were by arduous camel tracks As a result of this isolation Siwa developed a unique culture manifested in its crafts of basketry pottery and embroidery and in its styles of costume and silverwork The most visible and celebrated example of this was the silver jewelery that was worn by women in abundance at weddings and other ceremonies Based on conversations with women and men in the oasis and with reference to old texts this book describes the jewelery and costume at this highpoint of Siwan culture against the backdrop of its date gardens and springs social life and dramatic history It places the women s jewelery costume and embroidery into social perspective and describes how they were used in ceremonies and everyday life and how they were related to their beliefs and attitudes to the world The book also describes how in the second half of the twentieth century the arrival of the road and of television brought drastic change and the oasis was exposed to the styles and fashions of the outside world and how the traditional silver ornaments were gradually replaced by gold Siwa Oasis Ahmed Fakhry,1944 Enchanted Jewelry Of Egypt : The Traditional Art and Craft Azza Fahmy,2007 The story of jewelry in modern Egypt from the end of the nineteenth century to the fusion of modern and traditional The Vegetation of Egypt M.A. Zahran,A.J. highlight the characteristics of dunes and their interaction with humans in several widely divergent settings Volume 2 concludes with some musing on the value of study of the past as key to the future and speculates on what the future might hold in the light of a warmer and drier Earth and a rise in sea level that threaten large tracts of low lying land with marine incursions and destruction from storm surge PART 4 Sand Mobility and Encroachment The seven chapters in this Part examine the real world impact of sand encroachment and dune migration on people and their economic activities and the health welfare and financial implications related to destruction of infrastructure including human habitations PART 5 Sand Dune Landscapes Distribution Formation and Management Seven Case studies from several geographic regions in Africa the Middle East north east Asia are presented here to demonstrate the underlying mechanisms in dune formation and the diverse approaches to their management Human impacts such as sand mining tourism development combine with natural forces like climate variability to challenge the realization of an optimum management strategy PART 6 Concluding Thoughts Coping with an Unknown Future from a Little known Past The two chapters in Part 6 have special roles We are privileged to publish new research findings that are summarized here in Chapter 38 from extensive and detailed work conducted in the Kyzyl Kum and Karakum sand seas of Central Asia There is a strong belief that further study of the little known past such as revealed in this study could unlock clues as to what a future Earth might look like This leads on to speculation in Chapter 39 about the implications of what we already know about global change not only climate change and the impact of the Anthropocene on the dune systems both inland and coastal Sea level rise marine incursions and an increase in extreme weather events will affect dune systems and sand seas on the Northern Hemisphere and beyond

Tourism as a Tool for Development P. Díaz, 2013-10-30 Some researchers perceive tourism as a process which creates dependency and causes loss of socioeconomic and environmental control and is harmful to traditional sociocultural structures For others it is clearly an opportunity for development and convergence among societies The main consequences of tourism are economic sociocultural and socio ecological ones These directly affect the natural and cultural landscape as well as the inhabitants of the destinations Proper management can unite the local community strengthen the historical memory and promote the recognition that the landscape is a legacy worth preserving If local people can learn to appreciate the need for regulation and careful development of cultural tourism then it is possible to have an alternative to the strategies of convenience based upon the view of tourism only for profit Designing tourism to serve heritage and local sustainable development not only helps to conserve the resources that make it possible but also complies with the ethical duty to guide social perception towards awareness and respect which in turn will lead to sustainability By means of case studies and theoretical developments the authors attempt to present methods designed to minimise the impacts of tourism and encourage its positive effects Some ideas in the book discuss the role of local communities their participation in development management the singularities of community tourism planning local governance and the relationship between socio economic benefits and impacts Fodor's Egypt, 2009 No matter what you budget or whether it's your first trip or your fifteenth Fodor's Guide get you where you want to go The Mediterranean Medina AA.
