Region, State and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Judy Batt, Katarzyna Wolczuk, 2013-01-11 The papers that comprise this collection examine the role of competing European national ethnic and regional identities over the introduction of new regional levels of government in the former Soviet and now Central and Eastern European states

Islam and the Orientalist World-system Khaldoun Samman, Mazhar Al-Zo'by, 2015-11-17 Featuring Immanuel Wallerstein Joseph Massad Marnia Lazreg and other well known and emerging new authors this book seeks a more accurate understanding of Islam and Islamic societies role and relations to global cultural and economic realities The book confronts a trend today of analyzing Islam as a cultural system that stands outside of and even predates modernity The authors see this trend as part of a racist discourse unaware of the realities of contemporary Islam

Islamic societies today are products of the world capitalist system and cannot be understood as being separate from its forces. The authors offer a more carefully constructed and richer portrait of Islamic societies today and forcefully challenge the belief that Islam is not part of nor much affected by the modern world system. Collision and Collusion Janine R. Wedel, 2015-03-17. When the Soviet Union's communist empire collapsed in 1989, a mood of euphoria took hold in the West and in Eastern Europe. The West had won the ultimate victory; it had driven a silver stake through the heart of Communism. Its next planned step was to help the nations of Eastern Europe to reconstruct themselves as democratic free market states and full partners in the First World Order. But that, as Janine Wedel reveals in this gripping volume, was before Western governments set their poorly conceived programs in motion. Collision and Collusion tells the bizarre and sometimes scandalous story of Western governments' attempts to aid the former Soviet block. He shows how, by mid-decade, Western aid policies had often backfired, effectively discouraging market reforms and exasperating electorates who remarkably had voted back in the previously despised Communists. Collision and Collusion is the first book to explain where the Western dollars intended to aid Eastern Europe went and why they did so little to help. Taking a hard look at the bureaucrats, politicians, and consultants who worked to set up Western economic and political systems in Eastern Europe, the book details the extraordinary costs of institutional ignorance, cultural misunderstanding, and unrealistic expectations. The Politics of a Disillusioned Europe André Liebich, 2021-11-16. Moving from the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 to the present day, this book traces the trajectory of the six East Central European former satellites of the Soviet Union: Poland, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Romania, and Bulgaria, that have joined the European Union. It seeks in particular to explain these countries' disenchantment with the return to Europe in spite of their significant advances. The book proceeds country by country and then devotes chapters to some contemporary issues such as minorities, migration, and the relations of these new members with the European Union as a whole. The book eschews theory and is intended for a general audience, including students at all levels in political science and history classes devoted to the EU and to contemporary Europe, and to an academic and practitioner audience interested in world affairs and the evolution of the European Union. The book strives to fill a persistent knowledge gap in the English-speaking world concerning East Central Europe and to offer fresh insights about the region in the context of contemporary geopolitics. Fin de Millénaire Budapest Judit Bodnár, 2001. Fin de Millénaire Budapest combines historical narratives and ethnographic accounts with quantitative evidence to create a detailed picture of a city subjected to the forces of great local and global change. In the privatizing of public space, the decline of manufacturing, the rapid growth of services, and the opening of opportunities for entrepreneurs, Bodnár captures global urban patterns with a distinct central European accent. In particular, she shows tensions between the liberating and fragmenting effects of the increasingly private use of urban space and some ways in which the new urban patterns both resemble and transcend cultural patterns from Budapest's socialist past. BOOK JACKET Central and Southeast European Politics since 1989

Sabrina P. Ramet, 2010-02-18 The only textbook to provide a complete introduction to post 1989 Central and Southeast European politics this dynamic volume provides a comprehensive account of the collapse of communism and the massive transformation that the region has witnessed It brings together 23 leading specialists to trace the course of the dramatic changes accompanying democratization The text provides country by country coverage identifying common themes and enabling students to see which are shared throughout the area giving them a sense of its unity and comparability whilst strengthening understanding around its many different trajectories The dual thematic focus on democratization and Europeanization running through the text also helps to reinforce this learning process Each chapter contains a factual overview to give the reader context concerning the region which will be useful for specialists and newcomers to the subject alike

Death of the Father John Borneman, 2004 Death of the Father is a comparative examination of the crises in symbolic identification and national traumas that have resulted from the defeat and or implosion of regimes in Fascist Italy Nazi Germany Imperial Japan and Communist Eastern Europe
