Sketches Of American Life:

Sketches of American Life Harriet Beecher Stowe, 1855* Life in the New World Charles Sealsfield, 1844 The Sketch, the Tale, and the Beginnings of American Literature Lydia G. Fash, 2020-03-31 Accounts of the rise of American literature often start in the 1850s with a cluster of great American novels Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter Melville's Moby Dick and Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin. But these great works did not spring fully formed from the heads of their creators. All three relied on conventions of short fiction built up during the culture of beginnings the three decades following the War of 1812 when public figures glorified the American past and called for a patriotic national literature. Decentering the novel as the favored form of early nineteenth century national literature Lydia Fash repositions the sketch and the tale at the center of accounts of American literary history revealing how cultural forces shaped short fiction that was subsequently mined for these celebrated midcentury novels and for the first novel published by an African American. In the shorter works of writers such as Washington Irving Catharine Sedgwick Edgar Allan Poe and Lydia Maria Child among others the aesthetic of brevity enabled the beginning idea of a story to take the outsized importance fitted to the culture of beginnings. Fash argues that these short forms with their ethnic exclusions and narrative innovations coached readers on how to think about the United States past and the nature of narrative time itself. Combining history print history and literary criticism this book treats short fiction as a vital site for debate over what it meant to be American thereby offering a new account of the birth of a self consciously national literary tradition Graham's American Monthly Magazine of Literature, Art, and Fashion, 1843

Immigration, Ethnicity, and Class in American Writing, 1830-1860 Leonardo Buonomo, 2013-12-04 This book examines the close relationship between the portrayal of foreigners and the delineation of culture and identity in antebellum American writing. Both literary and historical in its approach this study shows how in a period marked by extensive immigration heated debates on national and racial traits during a flowering in American letters encouraged responses from American authors to outsiders that not only contain precious insights into nineteenth century America's self construction but also serve to illuminate our own time's multicultural societies. The authors under consideration are alternately canonical Emerson Hawthorne Melville recently rediscovered Kirkland or simply neglected Arthur. The texts analyzed cover such different genres as diaries letters newspapers manuals novels stories and poems The Continental Monthly, Vol. 5, No. 1, January, 1864 Various, 2021-01-18 Graham's American Monthly Magazine of Literature and Art George R. Graham, Edgar Allan Poe, Charles Jacobs Peterson, Rufus Wilmot Griswold, Robert Taylor Conrad, Joseph Ripley Chandler, Bayard Taylor, 1843

Book of the Artists Henry Theodore Tuckerman, 1867 Historical Sketch of the Second War Between the United States of America, and Great Britain: Events of 1812-13 Charles Jared Ingersoll, 1845 Sketches of History, Life, and Manners, in the United States (1826) Anne Newport Royall, 2008-06-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work American Women: Fifteen Hundred Biographies with Over 1,400 Portraits Frances Elizabeth Willard,1897 The Popular Science Monthly ,1891 The Continental Monthly ,1864 Sketches of Representative Men, North and South Augustus C. Rogers,1874 Introduction to English and American Literature Franklin Verzelius Newton Painter,1899 Woman's Record, Or, Sketches of All Distinguished Women Sarah Josepha Buell Hale,1855 The Book of Literature Richard Garnett,Léon Vallée,Alois Brandl,1923 The American Code of Manners Wesley R.
