

THESE INMATES ARE "BUSTING OUT" AND "BREAKING OUT"

SLAMMER GIRLS is a bawdy ball and chain comedy that will make you 'break out' laughing! It tells the story of Melody Campbell – a young and innocent blonde framed for the attempted assassination of the governor.

Sent to the women's penitentiary, Melody encounters a strange new life with even stranger cellmates – including an ex-hooker, a nymphomaniac and an undercover reporter dressed in drag! Knowing she'll get no favours from Candy Treat, the governor's playmate and the warden, Melody engineers a hilarious break out that will make you bust out laughing!

Slammer Girls – they'll do anything to get out!

Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women's imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women Plan B Jonathan

Lewis, 2002-09-01 A tale of censorship and regulation at the heart of the modern film industry In 1972 The Godfather and Deep Throat were the two most popular films in the country One a major Hollywood studio production the other an independently made skin flick At that moment Jon Lewis asserts the fate of the American film industry hung in the balance Spanning the 20th century Hollywood v Hard Core weaves a gripping tale of censorship and regulation Since the industry's infancy film producers and distributors have publicly regarded ratings codes as a necessary evil Hollywood regulates itself we have been told to prevent the government from doing it for them But Lewis argues that the studios self regulate because they are convinced it is good for business and that censorship codes and regulations are a crucial part of what binds the various competing agencies in the film business together Yet between 1968 and 1973 Hollywood films were faltering at the box office and the major studios were in deep trouble Hollywood s principal competition came from a body of independently produced and distributed films from foreign art house film Last Tango in Paris to hard core pornography like Behind the Green Door that were at once disreputable and for a moment at least irresistible even chic In response Hollywood imposed the industry wide MPAA film rating system the origins of the G PG and R designations we have today that pushed sexually explicit films outside the mainstream and a series of Supreme Court decisions all but outlawed the theatrical exhibition of hard core pornographic films Together these events allowed Hollywood to consolidate its iron grip over what films got made and where they were shown thus saving it from financial ruin
