African American Folk Healing Stephanie Mitchem, 2007-07 Cure a nosebleed by holding a silver quarter on the back of the neck Treat an earache with sweet oil drops Wear plant roots to keep from catching colds Within many African American families these kinds of practices continue today woven into the fabric of black culture often communicated through women Such folk practices shape the concepts about healing that are diffused throughout African American communities and are expressed in myriad ways from faith healing to making a mojo Stephanie Y Mitchem presents a fascinating study of African American healing She sheds light on a variety of folk practices and traces their development from the time of slavery through the Great Migrations She explores how they have continued into the present and their relationship with alternative medicines Through conversations with black Americans she demonstrates how herbs charms and rituals continue folk healing performances Mitchem shows that these practices are not simply about healing they are linked to expressions of faith delineating aspects of a holistic epistemology and pointing to disjunctures between African American views of wellness and illness and those of the culture of institutional medicine

African Folktales Paul Radin, 2015-03-08 A representative collection of eighty one myths and folktales chosen from the oral tradition of the peoples of Africa south of the Sahara Originally published in 1964 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 African Nights: Georgina's Story Linda Louisa Dell, 2019-12-09 Georgina's life is in turmoil A broken relationship a passionate love affair a life threatening illness her lover's disastrous trek into the wild lands of the Kalahari and the trauma of realising that she has made a great mistake These are just some of the challenges she confronts in this gripping story When Georgina's parents decided to take the family on a safari in South Africa to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary they had little idea of the outcome Georgina meets Sammy the enigmatic safari leader they fall in love During Georgina's visits she experiences the darker side of Africa when a boy is kidnapped and the culprits are found to be involved in obtaining body parts for witchcraft and poaching rhino horns and ivory The Story of an African Farm Olive Schreiner, 2003-01-27 The Story of an African Farm 1883 marks an early appearance in fiction of Victorian society's emerging New Woman The novel follows the spiritual quests of Lyndall and Waldo who each struggle against social constraints in their search for happiness and truth Lyndall against society's expectations of women and Waldo against stifling class conventions Written from the margins of the British empire the novel addresses the conflicts of race class and gender that shaped the lives of European settlers in Southern Africa before the Boer Wars This Broadview edition includes appendices that link the novel to histories of empire and colonialism the emergence of the New Woman and the conflicts between science and religion in the Victorian period Contemporary reviews are also included African American Military, Mason, and Muslim Dr. M. Shaheed Aadam, 2025-01-28 This is not only a story of my life but it details the history that I came across I wanted to let people know that my beginnings were quite rocky but I began to question religion at an early age I want people to know my fascination with the US Navy and the rest of the military This book will answer quite a few questions people have had about so called African Americans and what really makes us tick in so many words or less Though I can't speak for all Black folks I can say what I know and not what I've heard Engaging African American Males in Community Colleges Ted N. Ingram, James Coaxum, 2018-05-01 This volume dedicated to the engagement of African American males in community colleges furthers the research agenda focused on improving the educational outcomes of African American males The theme engagement also supports the anti deficit approach to research on African American males developed by renowned research scholars The true success of African American males in community colleges rests on how well these institutions engage young men into their institutions This will require community colleges to examine policies pedagogical strategies and institutional practices that alienate African American males and fosters a culture of underachievement The authors who have contributed to this volume all speak from the same script which proves that when African American males are properly engaged in an education that is culturally relevant they will succeed Therefore this book will benefit ALL who support the education of African American males It is our intent that this book will contribute to the growing body of knowledge that exists in this area as well as foster more inquiry into the achievement of African American males The book offers three approaches to understanding the engagement of African American males in community college which includes empirical research policy perspectives and programmatic initiatives
