The New Woman's Survival Catalog:

The New Woman's Survival Catalog Kirsten Grimstad, Susan Rennie, 2019-11-19 At once practical and creative this book was feminism's Whole Earth Catalog. Originally published in 1973, The New Woman's Survival Catalog is a seminal survey of the second wave feminist effort across the US. Edited by Kirsten Grimstad and Susan Rennie in just five months, The New Woman's Survival Catalog makes a nod to Stewart Brand's influential Whole Earth Catalog, mapping a vast network of feminist alternative cultural activity in the 1970s. Grimstad and Rennie set out on a two-month road trip in the summer of 1973, meeting and interviewing a range of organizations and individuals and gathering vital information on everything from arts groups to bookstores and independent presses, health, parenting and rape crisis centers, and educational, legal, and financial resources. These projects express a rejection of the values of existing institutional structures. Grimstad and Rennie wrote, and unlike the hip male counterculture, represent an active attempt to reshape culture through changing values and consciousness. Arranged in themed sections on art, communications, work and money, child care, self-help, self-defense, and activism, The New Woman's Survival Catalog provides crucial insight into feminist initiatives and activism nationwide during the Women's Movement. It includes a 'Making the Book' section that details the publication's production. Kirsten Grimstad and Susan Rennie are the coeditors of The New Woman's Survival Catalog and The New Woman's Survival Sourcebook (1975). They went on to co-found Chrysalis: A Magazine of Women's Culture, published out of the Woman's Building in downtown Los Angeles from 1977 to 1981. Grimstad is currently Co-Chair of Undergraduate Studies at Antioch University Los Angeles; she is the author of The Modern Revival of Gnosticism and Thomas Mann's Doktor Faustus (2002). Rennie taught social sciences at Union Institute University in Cincinnati, worked as a women's health activist, and now lives in Venice, California. The New Woman's Survival Catalog, 1975

The Business of Emotions in Modern History Mandy L. Cooper, Andrew Popp, 2023-01-12 The Business of Emotions in Modern History shows how businesses, from individual entrepreneurs to family firms and massive corporations, have relied on, leveraged, generated, and been shaped by emotions for centuries. With a broad temporal and global coverage ranging from the early modern era to the present day in Africa, Asia, Europe, and North America, the essays in this volume highlight the rich potential for studying emotions and business in tandem. In exploring how emotions and emotional situations affect business, and in turn how businesses affect the emotional lives of individuals and communities, this book allows us to recognize the emotional structures behind business decisions and relationships and how to question them. From emotional labour in family firms to affective corporate paternalism and the role of specific emotions such as trust, fear, anxiety, love, and nostalgia in creating economic connections, this book opens a rich new avenue of research for both the history of emotions and business history.

From Head Shops to Whole Foods Joshua C. Davis, 2017-08-08 In the 1960s and 70s, a diverse range of storefronts, including head shops, African American bookstores, feminist businesses, and organic grocers, brought the work of the New Left, Black Power, feminism, environmentalism, and other movements into the marketplace Through shared ownership limited growth and democratic workplaces these activist entrepreneurs offered alternatives to conventional profit driven corporate business models By the middle of the 1970s thousands of these enterprises operated across the United States but only a handful survive today Some such as Whole Foods Market have abandoned their quest for collective political change in favor of maximizing profits Vividly portraying the struggles successes and sacrifices of these unlikely entrepreneurs From Head Shops to Whole Foods writes a new history of social movements and capitalism by showing how activists embraced small businesses in a way few historians have considered The book challenges the widespread but mistaken idea that activism and political dissent are inherently antithetical to participation in the marketplace Joshua Clark Davis uncovers the historical roots of contemporary interest in ethical consumption social enterprise buying local and mission driven business while also showing how today s companies have adopted the language but not often the mission of liberation and social change in positive ways was legendary Barbara changed the lives of thousands of women in her lifetime For the first time historian Joanne Passet uncovers the controversial and often polarizing life of this firebrand editor and publisher with new and never before published letters interviews and other personal material from Grier s own papers Passet takes readers behind the scenes of The Ladder offering a rare window onto the isolated and bereft lives lesbians experienced before the feminist movement and during the earliest days of gay political organizing Through extensive letters between Grier and her friend novelist Jane Rule Passet offers a virtual diary of this dramatic and repressive era Passet also looks at Grier s infamous theft of The Ladder s mailing list which in turn allowed her to launch and promote Naiad Press the groundbreaking women s publishing company she founded with partner Donna McBride in 1973 Naiad went on to become one of the leaders in gay and lesbian book publishing and for years helped sustain lesbian and feminist bookstores and readers across the country

She's the Boss Debra Michals,2025-04-15 In the years after World War II as women were being pushed from wartime jobs for returning soldiers government and business leaders and women themselves saw small business ownership as a viable economic solution In just five years US women owned nearly a million of the nation s businesses In the decades since women have moved increasingly into business ownership often outpacing male start ups so that today they own more than fourteen million businesses 40 percent of all US companies She s the Boss chronicles the forces that made entrepreneurship attractive to women In rich detail Debra Michals shares the stories of the countless women of all races ethnicities genders and abilities who contributed to this important history The book also explores the intersection of women s personal choices within changing social political and economic factors such as the rising divorce rates of the 1960s and 1970s ongoing workplace and credit discrimination civil and women s rights activism and activist entrepreneurs the 1970s recession and 1980s Reagan Revolution and more recently the internet crowd funding and social entrepreneurship National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The Movement Clara Bingham,2024-07-30 A comprehensive and engaging oral history of the decade that defined the feminist movement including interviews with living icons and unsung heroes from former Newsweek reporter and author of the powerful and moving The New York Times Witness to the Revolution For lovers of both Barbie and Gloria Steinem The Movement is the first oral history of the decade that built the modern feminist movement Through the captivating individual voices of the people who lived it The Movement tells the intimate inside story of what it felt like to be at the forefront of the modern feminist crusade when women rejected thousands of years of custom and demanded the freedom to be who they wanted and needed to be This engaging history traces women s awakening organizing and agitating between the years of 1963 and 1973 when a decentralized collection of people and events coalesced to create a spontaneous combustion From Betty Friedan s The Feminine Mystique to the underground abortion network the Janes to Shirley Chisholm s presidential campaign and Billie Jean King s 1973 battle of the sexes Bingham artfully weaves together the fragments of that explosion person by person bringing to life the emotions of this personal cultural and political revolution Artists and politicians athletes and lawyers Black and white The Movement brings readers into the rooms where these women insisted on being treated as first class citizens and in the process changed the fabric of American life

Adopting the Tune of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within The New Womans Survival Catalog

In a world consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick conversation, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the written word usually diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives.
