Preventive diplomacy constitutes an important part of international conflict resolution mechanisms. The countries in the Asia Pacific region have the political will to use preventive diplomacy to address the needs for sustaining peace and security. The challenge is to find approaches compatible with the consensual norms and operational for tackling conflicts in the regional context. Structured on this thematic challenge, this book aims to present new approaches and practices of preventative diplomacy inspired by diplomatic innovation of Asia Pacific countries and around the world such as adaptive peace approach, continental approach, dominant coalition and new leadership in peacebuilding etc. and takes account recent literature on normative issues relating to preventative diplomacy such as international rule of law, normative entanglements and evolution of the international impartial and independent mechanism, the evolution of the norm against child soldiers, the implementation of the woman peace and security agenda and the role of Jus Post Bellum in the UN peace operations. It also examines how geopolitical competition and the recent covid 19 crisis impact the security of the region and explores the connection between the Belt and Road Initiative and sustaining peace of the region. This book is a valuable reading on the recent development of approaches and norms of preventative diplomacy and how they can contribute to sustaining peace of the Asia Pacific. It can be used as a text for college students, researchers and practitioners in the disciplines of international relations, political science, security studies, policy studies, diplomacy and social issues. Multilateral Security Cooperation in the Asia-Pacific Region Desmond Ball, 1999

Regional Security in Southeast Asia Mely Caballero Anthony, 2005 The book examines ASEAN's mechanisms in managing challenges and threats to regional security. Its extensive analyses of the ASEAN story of managing regional security cover the different phases of ASEAN's development as a regional organization and explore the perceptible changes that have occurred in regional mechanisms of conflict management. The book also examines the roles of relevant actors beyond the states of ASEAN and the key interactions that have evolved over time which have been instrumental in moving regional mechanisms beyond the ASEAN way. The book argues that the ASEAN way has not been impervious to change As the association finds its way through periods of crises and continues to confront the many challenges ahead ASEAN and its mechanisms are already being transformed beyond the narrow confines of the modalities associated with the ASEAN way The changes in the political and security landscape of the region as well as the democratic transitions taking place in some member states have set the stage for a much more dynamic set of regional actors and processes that bring into question the kind of regionalism that is now taking place in the region the way regionalism is changing in Southeast Asia
