Victims of the Book François Proulx, 2019-11-08 Victims of the Book uncovers a long neglected but once widespread subgenre the fin de siècle novel of formation in France Novels about and geared toward adolescent male readers were imbued with a deep worry over young Frenchmen's masculinity as evidenced by titles like Crise de jeunesse Youth in Crisis 1897 La Crise virile Crisis of Virility 1898 La Vie stérile A Sterile Life 1892 and La Mortelle Impuissance Deadly Impotence 1903 In this book François Proulx examines a wide panorama of these novels many of which have rarely been studied as well as polemical essays pedagogical articles and medical treatises on the perceived threats posed by young Frenchmen's reading habits Against this cultural backdrop he illuminates all that was at stake in representations of the male reader by prominent novelists of the period including Jules Vallès Paul Bourget Maurice Barrès André Gide and Marcel Proust In the final decades of the nineteenth century social commentators insistently characterized excessive reading as an emasculating illness that afflicted French youth Fin de siècle writers responded to this pathologization of reading with a profusion of novels addressed to young male readers paradoxically proposing their own novels as potential cures In the early twentieth century this corpus was critically revisited by a new generation of writers Victims of the Book shows how Gide and Proust in particular reworked the fin de siècle paradox to subvert cultural norms about literature and masculinity proposing instead a queer pact between writer and reader
