Chinese Poetry in English Verse Herbert Allen Giles, 1898 An Introduction to Chinese Poetry Michael Fuller, 2020-10-26 This innovative textbook for learning classical Chinese poetry moves beyond the traditional anthology of poems translated into English and instead brings readers including those with no knowledge of Chinese as close as possible to the texture of the poems in their original language The first two chapters introduce the features of classical Chinese that are important for poetry and then survey the formal and rhetorical conventions of classical poetry The core chapters present the major poets and poems of the Chinese poetic tradition from earliest times to the lyrics of the Song Dynasty 960 1279 Each chapter begins with an overview of the historical context for the poetry of a particular period and provides a brief biography for each poet Each of the poems appears in the original Chinese with a word by word translation followed by Michael A Fuller s unadorned translation and a more polished version by modern translators A question based study guide highlights the important issues in reading and understanding each particular text Designed for classroom use and for self study the textbook s goal is to help the reader appreciate both the distinctive voices of the major writers in the Chinese poetic tradition and the grand contours of the development of that tradition CHINESE POETRY IN ENGLISH VERSE HERBERT ALLEN. Chinese Poetry Herbert A Giles,2020-02-04 A Delightful article by Mr H A Giles on Chinese Poetry in English Verse appears in the Nineteenth Century He begins by reminding us that for many centuries the Chinese nation has closely cultivated the poetic art and still turns out annually more poetry than all the rest of the world put together All modern Chinese statesmen are poets more or less though poets properly so called are not to be found in China at the present day The Chinese word for poet is a wind man man of the afflatus The charm of the article consists in Mr Giles rendering of Chinese poems as may be seen from one or two selected from the profusion with which he has favoured us Mr Giles selections are from poets belonging to what he calls the Augustan age of Chinese literature roughly from 600 to 900 A d As his examples suggest I love to seek a quiet nook and some old volumes bring Where I can see the wild flowers bloom and hear the birds in spring Solitude among the Hills The birds have all flown to their roost in the tree The last cloud has just floated lazily by But we never tire of each other not we As we sit there together the mountains and I At the Top of a Pagoda Upon this tall pagoda s peak My hands can nigh the stnra enclose I dare not raise my voice to speak For fear of startling God s repose It is pleasant to know that Just as the Confucian Canon is absolutely free from impure word or thought of any kind so in the same sense is the great bulk of Chinese poetry equally without reproach The Review of Reviews Volume A Hundred and Seventy Chinese Poems ,1918 An Anthology of Chinese Verse ,1967 Gems of Chinese Literature Herbert Allen Giles,1926
