Reserve Grade

Another disappointing season for the club's Reserve Grade side. Looking for reasons which influenced the performance of this team can only result in finding excuses.

A more positive approach to the game by our players and more dedication must be the first ingredients needed if success is to be attained.

Some fifty-two players were used during the season and this did not keep coach, Brian Murray, who after four years coaching with the District Club, has decided to have a rest.

The team's effort did nothing to reflect Brian's ability or enthusiasm as a coach. "Thanks Brian — well done!"

It is hoped that next season brings greater reward to our Reserve Grade who after all should be pushing the top grade players to their limit.

Congratulations to Parramatta, 1977 Reserve Grade Premiers — It's Souths turn next.
