The Next Arab Decade Hisham Sharabi, 2019-07-11 This book is concerned with defining the nature of the crisis of the Arab world with tracing its possible development and with charting the conditions of its possible outcomes addressing the next decade from the vantage of 1986 rather than that of 1985     The Next Arab Decade Hisham Sharabi, 1988     The

Next Arab Decade Mary Ann Fay, 1985     The Future of the Arab Nation (RLE: The Arab Nation) Khair

Haseeb, 2012-06-14 What is the place of the Arab states as a new world order emerges How can the Arab world respond positively to change as the new Europe emerges political relationships are restructured and the information revolution transforms the global economy To what extent are the Arab states in danger of falling prey to increasing disunity and fragmentation The book is the result of a major research programme in which Arab social scientists outline some of the paths which could be taken by the Arab world over the next 25 years It presents a detailed analysis of resources in the Arab world including population employment oil and water supplies and the trade and investment situation The authors argue for greater popular participation and reassert the argument that only by pooling resources effectively can the Arab states establish their place in a world of national and supra national blocs     Egypt And The Arabs Joseph P Lorenz, 2021-11-28 As the Arab states come to grips with new realities in the Middle East the shifts in political and economic power in the region the growing ascendancy of fundamentalist Islam over Nationalist and pan Arab ideologies of the past and the changing dynamics of the Palestinian problem the course that Mubarak charts for Egypt has become a factor of key importance In this book a career Foreign Service officer examines the changes that are taking place in Egyptian attitudes and policies toward the Arab world from three perspectives the ways in which Egypt pursued its regional interests under Nasser and Sadat the policy constraints imposed by political economic and social forces within Egypt and the dynamics of Egyptian Arab relations since the October War     The Women And International Development Annual, Volume 2 Rita S Gallin, Anne Ferguson, 2019-08-22 This annual series published in co operation with the Women in International Development Program at Michigan State University uses a multidisciplinary approach to explore women s experiences across a wide range of geographical areas economic sectors and societal institutions The articles presented in each volume synthesize a growing body of literature on key issues suggest priorities for research and propose changes in development policy and programming Each volume is divided into three major sections In the first contributors distill and interpret research in review articles in the second a trend report they provide original analysis of existing data sets and in the final section they analyze a specific research concern from varying perspectives     Research Anthology on Religious Impacts on Society Management Association, Information

Resources, 2020-07-21 Religion is considered by many to be something of the past but it has a lasting hold in society and influences people across many cultures This integration of spirituality causes numerous impacts across various aspects of modern life The variety of religious institutions in modern society necessitates a focus on diversity and inclusiveness in the interactions between organizations of different religions cultures and viewpoints Research Anthology on Religious Impacts on Society examines the cultural sociological economic and philosophical effects of religion on modern society and human behavior Highlighting a range of topics such as religious values social reforms and spirituality this publication is an ideal reference source for religious officials church leaders psychologists sociologists professionals researchers academicians and students

Zakariyya Tamir and the Politics of the Syrian Short Story Alessandro Columbu,2022-12-29 Zakariyya Tamir is Syria's foremost writer of short stories and his works are widely read across the Arab world In this the first English language monograph on Tamir's entire oeuvre Alessandro Columbu examines Tamir's literary development in the context of changing political contexts from his beginnings as a short story writer on local magazines in the late 1950s until the Syrian revolution of 2011 Thus the movements from independence and Western inspired modernisation to the rise of nationalism and socialism war defeat occupation in the 1960s the emergence of authoritarianism and the cult of personality of Hafiz al Assad in the 1970s are charted in the context of Tamir's works Therein the significance of masculinity and patriarchy and its changing nature in relation to nationalism and authoritarianism are revealed as Tamir's foremost vehicles for social and political critique The role of female sexuality and its disrupting empowering nature vis vis patriarchal institutions is also explored as is the question of literary commitment and the relationship between authors and the authoritarian regime of Syria homosexuality and representations of unconventional sexualities in general Syria's Peasantry, the Descendants of Its Lesser Rural Notables, and Their Politics Hanna Batatu,2012-09-17 In this book the distinguished scholar Hanna Batatu presents a comprehensive analysis of the recent social economic and political evolution of Syria's peasantry the segment of society from which the current holders of political power stem Batatu focuses mainly on the twentieth century and in particular on the Ba'ath movement the structures of power after the military coup d'état of 1963 and the era of Hafez al Asad Syria's first ruler of peasant extraction Without seeking to prove any single theory about Syrian life he offers a uniquely rich and detailed account of how power was transferred from one demographic group to another and how that power is maintained today Batatu begins by examining social differences among Syria's peasants and the evolution of their mode of life and economic circumstances He then scrutinizes the peasants forms of consciousness organization and behavior in Ottoman and Mandate times and prior to the Ba'athists rise to power He explores the rural aspects of Ba'athism and shows that it was not a single force but a plurality of interrelated groups prominent among them the descendants of the lesser rural notables with different social goals and mental horizons The book also provides a perceptive account of President Asad his personality and conduct and the characteristics and power structures of his regime Batatu draws throughout on a wide range of socioeconomic and biographical information and on personal interviews with Syrian peasants and political leaders offering invaluable insights into the complexities of a country and a regime that have long been poorly understood by outsiders

The Middle East ,1989 International Development Bruce Currie-Alder,Ravi Kanbur,David M. Malone,Rohinton

Medhora,2014 A central premise is that an objective and universally accepted measure of success in development and paths to it does not exist      Religious Fundamentalism in Developing Countries Santosh C. Saha,Thomas K. Carr,2001-03-30 Using a variety of methodological approaches this timely book offers a thorough examination of the impact and implications of religious fundamentalism in developing nations The authors explore why and how adherence to fundamentalist principles affects the social political and religious development of such countries as Israel India Pakistan Bangladesh Egypt and the Philippines One of the most significant contributions of this volume is that it challenges the assumption that fundamentalism in developing countries is based solely on religious motivations The authors maintain that fundamentalism of this sort is motivated by both religious and political convictions This combination of religious and political motivations allows fundamentalism to exert a tremendous influence on the public policies of these developing nations As the social fabric of such countries continues to be developed it is clear that fundamentalism will continue to play a significant and potentially dangerous role      Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown,2023-05-01 In recent decades the culture society politics and economics of Bahrain have been transformed driving its global ambitions while retaining to a degree the rule of law and cosmopolitanism Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain examines the transformation of Bahrain from the 1930s from a regional trading port and then an important oil producer into the financial hub for the Gulf and into a global centre of Islamic finance It focuses on the changes and tensions that transformation brought to Bahrain s political legal economic religious and social structures In this book Rajeswary Brown explores the rising force of youth populism driven by the persistence of poverty and unemployment notably among rural Shi ite communities and unemployed middle class youth as well as examining Bahrain s skillful reconciliation of the demands of Islamic faith expressed in the Sharia to the requirements of modern financial capitalism In this Bahrain s experience can be set against the modern history of much of the rest of the Middle East most strikingly with respect to the position of Islamic charities notably in Syria comparisons of which are fully explored here      Passages Maria Beville,Marita Ryan,Maeve Tynan,2020-07-13 The multiplicity of interpretations available in the word passages is engaged with in this collection of essays that perceptively navigate the ideas of literal and metaphorical crossings sites of liminality and interstitial zones the traversal of boundaries and the complex notion of rites and rights of passage This passages topic is elucidated through discussions on writers as diverse as James Joyce and the Palestinian poet Tawf q S yigh and genres that include the novel short story poetry and drama The diversity of texts is matched by a diversity of theoretical readings that stimulate debate around central ideas such as how are old texts revisited and re imagined in the context of new theories How do contemporary texts re appropriate the past to critically appraise the present How is identity renegotiated in cross cultural texts and in translations The combination of close textual readings with broader philosophical and cultural deliberations allows for a vigorous examination of texts and theories The authors in capturing the cultural moment of their work while acknowledging the ongoing movement of the texts and theory allow the reader to both contextualise the work and recognise the creative evolution of ideas that are simultaneously at play Academically orientated this collection is essential reading for anyone interested in changing theoretical ideas and how they are re invigorating a reading of literature It will be of interest especially to students and scholars of English literature philosophy and cultural studies Its close textual analysis and multiple perspectives will also make it a very useful classroom text in the aforementioned areas

The Fragmenting Force of Memory Norman Saadi Nikro, 2012-04-25 This study is about experimental forms of cultural production that situate and work through personal experiences of the civil war in Lebanon It addresses selected works of literature autobiography and memoir by Jean Said Makdisi Rashid al Daif Elias Khoury and Mai Ghoussoub and the civil war trilogy of documentary films by Mohamed Soueid From a phenomenological hermeneutic perspective the book is concerned with how they give accounts of themselves as remnants leftovers and undigested remains of the civil war and of related trajectories of ideological attachment to symbolic mandates Constrained to reposition their sense of self from an agent of history to a casualty of history their acutely personal works of cultural production initiate an unraveling of both self and circumstance through the fragmenting force of memory Drawing on a broad range of phenomenological critical theory within the research fields of postcolonial memory psychoanalytic gender and literary studies attuned to subjectivity as a field of social production and exchange emphasis is given to how the writers and filmmaker employ a non presentist anachronic or paratactic register of memory to excavate both a historical understanding of self and related modalities of social viability This concerns how the symptomatic style of their work embodies and creatively and critically situates a refusal to package and normalize any idealized account of the war related assemblages of temporal succession or a presentation of self as discrete and omniscient

The Palestinian Novel Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2016-04-26 What happens to the Palestinian novel after the national dispossession of the nakba and how do Palestinian novelists respond to this massive crisis This is the first study in English to chart the development of the Palestinian novel in exile and under occupation from 1948 onwards By reading the novel in the context of the ebb and flow of Arab and Palestinian revolution Bashir Abu Manneh defines the links between aesthetics and politics Combining historical analysis with textual readings of key novels by Jabra Kanafani Habiby and Khalifeh the chronicle of the Palestinian novel unfolds as one that articulates humanism self sacrifice as collective redemption mutuality and self realization Political challenge hope and possibility are followed by the decay of collective and individual agency Genet s and Khoury s unrivalled literary homages to Palestinian revolt are also examined By critically engaging with Luk cs Adorno and postcolonial theory questions of struggle and self determination take centre stage

Global Energy Shifts Bruce Podobnik, 2008-11-20 A timely look at key transitions in energy use over the past 100 years

Civil-Military Relations in the Modern Middle East David S. Sorenson, 2023-01-31 Civil Military Relations in the Modern Middle East explores the political and economic interactions between civilians and the armed forces in the post World War II Middle East emphasizing four themes military and society the role of the military in political transitions the military's part in national economies and the relations between soldiers and civilians in wartime Covering the greater Middle East including the Arab States Israel Turkey and Iran the book establishes how militaries in many Middle Eastern countries influence the national political and economic systems and how in turn politics influences the national militaries

Compellence and the Strategic Culture of Imperial Japan Forrest Morgan, 2003-11-30 Compellence is a fundamental tool of international security policy This study explains how culture shapes the ways that decision makers respond to the threat of force First Morgan builds a theoretical framework next he analyzes three cases in which states attempted to compel Japan to change its behavior The first is an in depth analysis of the 1895 triple intervention in which Russia Germany and France forced Japanese leaders to return the Liaotung Peninsula to China following the first Sino Japanese War The second and third relate to World War II the 1941 oil embargo intended to coerce Tokyo to withdraw its military from China and Washington's 1945 efforts to force Japan to end the war These cases explain much of the seemingly irrational behavior previously attributed to Japanese leaders Morgan demonstrates that culture clearly influenced outcomes in all three cases by conditioning Japanese perceptions strategic preferences and governmental processes These findings are relevant today and recent conflicts suggest that they will be increasingly important into the 21st century This book offers policy makers a much needed method for employing strategic culture analysis to develop more effective security strategies strategies that will be of vital importance in an increasingly volatile world

Civil Society in the Middle East, Volume 1 Norton, 2022-04-11 Launched in 1992 the Civil Society in the Middle East program has brought together dozens of leading scholars to analyze political life through an exploration of civil society within the states of the region This is the first of two volumes to be published by Brill it contains original studies of Egypt Jordan Kuwait Syria Tunisia the West Bank and Gaza as well as the prospects for democratization in the Arab world the consequences of economic liberalization and contemporary Islamic thought on civil society and democracy This first volume offers a wealth of new material on unions political parties and professional syndicates and other components of civil society as the authors weigh the prospects for political reform in the Middle East and provide readable yet richly informed assessments of state society relations
