The Sea and the Hills Hussain Najadi,2012-03-23 The Sea and the Hills Hussain Najadi's philosophy which he called the golden triangle was to harness Western technology management know how and machinery with Asian natural resources and labour and Arab capital Arab Malaysia became the first to pump petro dollars into East Asia channelling all its non Malaysian currency funding through its branch in Bahrain Most of the bank's foreign business was done in member countries of the fledgling Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN with Nr Najadi declaring himself a great believer in regionalism If anyone expected Hussain Najadi to be apologetic about Arab Malaysian's early success and defensive about the swirling gossip some of it personal they did not understand him and his style Exuding the supreme confidence that irritated his critics he announced his intention to become the leader of wholesale and corporate banking in Malaysia within five years a target he reached in two years He then lifted his sights to be the biggest in Southeast Asia within five years a goal he achieved this time with four years to spare Barry Wain Singapore former Managing Editor of Wall Street Journal Asia author lecturer This book is an affirmation of belief in life's purpose of a spirit of adventure and of unbridled optimism The dramatic arc of my story rises in success surely but cannot be said to crash in tragedy the setbacks I have faced have fed my further growth as wave feeds energy to wave The holistic moral of any man's life story and I have no doubt each man has his own lesson to learn is best appreciated when seen from a distance with the benefit of time and perspective Only then is the landscape laid out in its full beauty the hills and valleys the glittering sea on the horizon Hussain Najadi

Finding the Path of Me Wendy Hutchinson,Becky Bayne,2021-11-23 Finding the Path of Me is a journey sparked by the desire to find myself It was often emotionally painful but only through emotional healing can transformation occur I had to face my deepest fears to ascend and go higher vibrationally It felt at times like the complete destruction and decomposition of me Slowly I brought all

I Killed the Golden Goose Rasal,2021-07-11 We are all that A summation of the could haves A result of the choices not made as much as of the choices made The 80 s An era before India opened herself up to possibilities An era of constraints and deprivation Individualism private spaces essence and excesses were all largely unheard of For the 80 s kids this also meant limited choices and austerity of dreams Choices were mostly a lack of options or those made for them by others clothes television channels education partner career etc Like every other child in his school album he wore the same smile and the same unimaginative clothes rolled out by the neighbourhood tailor He continued mimicking others smiles and then their career choices too Until one day when he realised how ill fitting his garbs were How his true smiles remained hesitant to be completed How deep that void had grown in him And then the jigsaw of a perfect looking life went into scramble mode An unexpected divorce an indefinite sabbatical darkness questions with no answers An urge to go back to the comfort of the familiar versus that desire to experience the unknown End of it most questions were answered The rest died or were killed The void filled and smiles completed He then wrote poems stories and a book about it About how he made unforced choices first time in four decades About how he killed the golden goose against all proverbial advice
