The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Samm Deighan, 2021-06-08 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics Perversions of Fascism Antonios Vadolas, 2018-04-17 Contemporary versions of evil demonise modern fascists totalitarian threats and Hitlers As if not obscure enough fascist evil has been equivocally linked with perversion This book reveals that both fascism and perversion implicate the non symbolisable kernel in politics which becomes the source of their mystification It argues that the fascist does not take the same discursive position as the pervert does regarding this symbolic gap The author develops a new rhetoric de pathologised and de ideologised regarding the structure of the so called pervert introducing new vocabularies and directions for psychoanalytic research that further distance the pervert or whom he calls the extra ordinary subject from fascist politics and instead exposes his diachronic fascist isolation from the social edifice This reveals the fruitful alternatives that can stem from a return to Freud cum Lacan which supports a flexible on going reformulation of psychoanalytic knowledge Holocaust Representations in History Daniel H. Magilow, Lisa Silverman, 2019-11-28 How the Holocaust is depicted and memorialized is key to our understanding of the atrocity and its impact Through 18 case studies dating from the immediate aftermath of the genocide to the present day Holocaust Representations in History explores this in detail Daniel H Magilow and Lisa Silverman examine film drama literature photography visual art television graphic novels memorials and video games as they discuss the major themes and issues that underpin the chronicling of the Holocaust Each chapter is focused on a critical debate or question in Holocaust history the case studies range from well known commercially successful works about the Holocaust to controversial examples which have drawn accusations of profaning the memory of the genocide This 2nd edition adds to the mosaic of representation with new chapters analysing poetry in the wake of the Holocaust and video games from the here and now This unique volume provides an unmatched survey of key and controversial Holocaust representations and is of vital importance to anyone wanting to understand the subject and its
