Alan E. Watson, Janet Sproull, 2003 The Abstract Wild Jack Turner, 2021-12-21 If anything is endangered in America it is our experience of wild nature. Gross contact. There is knowledge only the wild can give us. Knowledge specific to it. Knowledge specific to the experience of it. These are its gifts to us. How wild is wilderness and how wild are our experiences in it? Asks Jack Turner in the pages of The Abstract Wild. His answer: not very wild. National parks and even so-called wilderness areas fall far short of offering the primal mystic connection possible in wild places. And this is so, Turner avows, because any managed land, never mind what it's called, ceases to be wild. Moreover, what little wildness we have left is fast being destroyed by the very systems designed to preserve it. Natural resource managers, conservation biologists, environmental economists, park rangers, zoo directors and environmental activists. Turner's new book takes aim at these and all others who labor in the name of preservation. He argues for a new conservation ethic that focuses less on preserving things and more on preserving process and leaving things be. He takes off after zoos and wilderness tourism with a vengeance and he cautions us to resist language that calls a tree a resource and wilderness a management unit. Eloquent and fast-paced. The Abstract Wild takes a long view to ask whether ecosystem management isn't a bit of a sham and the control of grizzlies and wolves at best a travesty. Next the author might bring his readers up close for a look at pelicans, mountain lions or Shamu the whale. From whatever angle Turner stirs into his arguments the words of dozens of other American writers.

including Thoreau Hemingway Faulkner and environmentalist Doug Peacock We hunger for a kind of experience deep enough to change our selves our form of life writes Turner Readers who take his words to heart will find if not their selves their perspectives on the natural world recast in ways that are hard to ignore and harder to forget My Dreams My Journey Daphne Forbes, 2013-12 Daphne was the tenth of fourteen children born into a loving Christian family in 1940s Jamaica Although a delicate child she was happy and had lots of fun with her siblings in their idyllic rural home She was ambitious and dreamed of becoming a doctor and eventually to have a happy fulfilled family life of her own Things started to go wrong when she became ill at the age of fourteen She later became an unwed mother to the disappointment of her family and church She could no longer stay at home as her situation and desires had changed This forced her to leave Jamaica and move to England in the winter of 1961 where she married her son's father Married life was far from what she expected The reality of life in England was hard for her to adjust to She encountered racism at work and illness in the family In 1964 with the help and encouragement of her brother she was introduced to the New Testament Church of God where she received the Lord Jesus Christ into her life Daphne decided to return to Jamaica later in life but that decision was not without its challenges She had changed and so had Jamaica She shares some interesting amazing and challenging experiences and dreams from her journey through life Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for thee Mark 5:19 The Precepts of Jesus the Guide to Peace and Happiness, Extracted from the Books of the New Testament Ascribed to the Four Evangelists.
