Fijnaut, Alan Littler, 2009-02-28 This is the third book to be produced by members of the Gambling Research Group associated with Tilburg University's Faculty of Law concerning issues closely connected with the debate on the gambling policies that the European Union and its Member States are pursuing The first book Alan Littler and Cyrille Fijnaut eds The Regulation of Gambling European and National Perspectives Leiden Martinus Nijhoff Publishers 2007 mainly considers the legal aspects of gambling regulation at both European Union and Member State level The second book Tom Coryn Cyrille Fijnaut and Alan Littler eds Economic Aspects of Gambling Regulation EU and US Perspectives Leiden

Martinus Nijhoff Publishers 2008 looks at research conducted in the United States and the European Union into the costs and benefits involved in the regulation of gambling. The contributions to this third book turn the spotlight on two social problems: crime and addiction, both of which play a significant part in the institutional debate in the European Union concerning whether gambling should be treated as a service that like other services should be subject to the laws universally applicable to the internal market. This volume is primarily devoted to the research that has been conducted in several Member States into the problems of gambling-related crime and addiction. It also examines developments at EU level. What policy is the European Commission currently pursuing? And what stance does the European Court of Justice take these days? Crime and addiction problems that can arise in the context of online gambling and at possible ways of keeping them under control are also examined.

The Neuroscience and Neuropsychology of Gambling Luke Clarke, Anna E. Goudriaan, 2021-11-29. Gambling disorder is a behavioural addiction that represents the clinical extreme of a spectrum of gambling-related harm. What insights can neuroscientific and neuropsychological methods provide to help understand this condition and improve existing programs for treatment and prevention? This volume describes recent research using an array of contemporary tools, including structural and functional brain imaging and neurocognitive assessment. These analyses consider brain activity and psychological functioning in people with gambling disorder under resting conditions, due to tasks of reward processing and inhibitory control, and as a function of important sources of individual differences, including depression and impulsivity. This volume also synthesizes contemporary research using animal models to examine decision making under uncertainty from a behavioural neuroscience perspective, as well as synthesizing evidence from pharmacological treatments for gambling disorders. These findings complement research to understand substance use disorders and other emerging forms of behavioural addiction. This volume contains contributions from many of the leading research groups in this exciting field. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of International Gambling Studies.
