There was a young girl from New York,
Whose ancestors all came from Cork,
Whose ancestors all came from Cork,
That in order to eat soup with a fork,
She had to eat soup with a fork.

The Of Irish Limericks:

The Book of Irish Limericks Myler Magrath, 1995 The funniest ever book of five liners Limerick's Fighting Story, 1916-21 Ruan O'Donnell, 2009 Limerick's Fighting Story offers eye witness and first hand accounts of the struggle for independence in Limerick city and county When the Truce was declared in the War of Independence in July 1921 each of Limerick's brigade areas west mid and east had flying columns in the field While the challenge of city fighting and urban guerrilla tactics were high on the list of concerns for the mid brigade the east and west flying columns were active raiders and ambush artists This new edition of the classic Limerick's Fighting Story features stories and reports from every aspect of the conflict in Limerick from the Limerick Heroes of 1916 through the nights of terror and violence in Limerick city as Tans killed residents to the exploits of the women of Cumman na mBan The Limerick Bob Turvey, 2024-09-23 For more than 200 years the limerick has been loved for its mordant wit breathtaking rhymes swinging rhythm groaning puns and ability to paint outrageous mental pictures This book analyzes the limerick's origin and evolution as the best known humorous verse form in the English speaking world It also examines previous attempts to capture the history of the limerick including those that used guesswork presented flawed conclusions and even contradicted each other Findings are laid out logically and chronologically so readers can easily follow the thread of every claim County Limerick Ireland, Genealogy and Family History Notes from the Irish Archives Michael C. O'Laughlin, 2008 A Guide to Tracing Your Limerick Ancestors Margaret Franklin, 2003 These invaluable guides include church records civil and land records censuses newspapers commercial directories school records and others where they can be accessed and how they can be used to best effect Limerick's Glory Mainchín Seoighe, 2002 Ireland. Dublin, the Shannon, Limerick, Cork, and the Kilkenny Races ... O'Connell and the Repeal Association, etc Johann Georg KOHL, 1844 The Impact of World War One on Limerick Tadhg Moloney, 2014-03-26 This book examines the impact of World War One on the people of Limerick It traces how recruitment which was weak at the commencement of the war increased locally after the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party John Redmond issued his call for Irish nationalists and others to enlist and as the war progressed how Sinn Féin separatists impinged on recruiting efforts It also shows that the British War Office were unwitting contributors to the separatists cause by their ill conceived actions that only assisted them in their political cause and anti recruiting campaign The book also tracks how the separatists gained considerably in both military and political strength locally through the inept policies that changed public support for the war effort thereby paving the way for the Sinn Féin victory in the General Election of December 1918 thus giving credence to the author and poet Robert Graves description that Limerick had become a Sinn Féin ridden town Further to this it demonstrates that despite the best efforts of local capitalists to procure war work contracted out by the British War Office only very little was achieved the War Office ensuring that the vast array of such work was to remain in Britain Some local capitalists did of course gain as a result of the war these were notably those such as merchants and farmers who were in a position to provide Britain and her army with all the foodstuffs that she required Those on low incomes namely the working class who also provided the majority of recruits for the armed forces were to suffer through the ever increasing price rises This book therefore reveals a complex scene where social and political alignments reflect much of what was happening nationally but also had uniquely local characteristics

The first of a six book series on titles on the Military History Of The Irish Civil War this is an in depth study of the battle for Limerick city The story concentrates on the vicious battle that took place between Republican and Provisional Government forces for the control of Limerick City Occurring in the early days of the Civil War hostilities arrived in Limerick with a whimper rather than a bang Outnumbered and out gunned the Pro Treaty Commander of the city Michael Brennan negotiated a truce with the Anti Treaty Chief of Staff Liam Lynch But the benefit of this lull in fighting accrued almost entirely to the Pro Treaty side gaining them time for reinforcements and weaponry to arrive When it did the city became a battleground of extreme viciousness Several buildings were shelled by 18 pounder guns at point blank range The fighting around the Strand barracks was particularly heavy Pádraig Ruairc offers a fresh perspective on the struggle that reduced the viability of the Republican s hoped for Munster Republic and set the stage for the battle of Kilmallock which checked the pro treaty rout that the initial stages of the Civil War had been
